Craft Of Theology From Symbol To System:

The Craft of Theology Avery Dulles, 1992 Avery Dulles's theological career has spanned one of the most creative and confusing periods in the history of the church. With the goal of integrating new information from philosophy and the sciences into a deeper understanding of the world and society, the many theological schools pursued independent agendas with the net effect of a loss of coherence. It is Fr Dulles's contention that theological schools have drifted so far apart that what seems false and dangerous to one school seems almost self-evident to another. Theologians lack a common language, common goals, and common norms. Exploring the possibilities for greater consensus, The Craft of Theology illustrates how a post-critical theology can draw on the riches of Scripture and tradition as it reflects on the faith of the church in new contexts. Fr Dulles discusses the freedom of theology within the university and sets forth principles for a fresh dialogue with philosophy, the sciences, and other Christian churches. The Art of Theology Stephan van Erp, 2004 Art and theology are two different ways of making meaning. Art is a matter of inspiration and intuition. It needs neither standards nor guidelines. It does not follow predictable patterns, nor is it determined by any specific goal. Theology is similar in that it generates meaning in order to understand and communicate faith. It explores the continuities and discontinuities between divine and human creations through metaphors, images, and the play of ideas. Unlike art, however, theology is primarily a matter of reason. It follows patterns of consistency and coherence and is shaped by the will to clarify and explain. Can art offer a way of understanding the nature of theology despite these differences The twentieth century Swiss theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 wrote a seven volume masterpiece on theological aesthetics He restructured theology around basic aesthetic concepts like form and beauty The present study offers a critical analysis of Balthasar s work against the background of contemporary debates on theological foundations The author approaches this task through a careful rereading of two of Balthasar s key sources Nicholas of Cusa and Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling In this way the author rediscovers hidden undercurrents in modernity from Renaissance aesthetics to German Idealism The result is a theological aesthetics rooted in tradition and capable of understanding and communicating faith in the face of present day challenges

Liturgy as Revelation Philip Caldwell,2014-12-01 A critical issue in modern Catholic theology has been the relationship between the doctrine of revelation and the church s liturgical and sacramental practice This volume argues that although in the twentieth century Catholic theology increasingly recognized the centrality of Christology particularly the person of Christ as the locus of revelation and drew out the crucial implications of Christ as the revelation of God it was slow to connect this revelatory dynamic with the encounter that occurs within the sacramental space of the liturgy most notably the Eucharist Taking the decline of the neoscholastic enterprise in Catholic theology and the challenges posed by modernism as his point of departure Philip Caldwell traces the evolution of the Catholic theology of revelation in the twentieth century and the vital role played by the liturgical and sacramental renewal movements in reimagining this pivotal theological category Examining the specific contributions of Ren Latourelle Avery Dulles Salvatore Marsilli and Gustave Martelet against a background of pre conciliar ressourcement theology this volume provides a comprehensive account of why a Trinitarian and Christological construal of liturgy and sacraments as revelation is key to the vision that informed Vatican II and offers constructive theological and ecclesial possibilities for the future

The End of Liberal Theology Peter Toon,1995 Modern theology is a maze of conflicting beliefs In fact the shape of contemporary theology has changed so much in this century and especially since the 1960s that it s hard to make sense of it all Of not only what the various belief systems mean but how we came to be where we are within those systems In The End of Liberal Theology respected theological lecturer and author Peter Toon introduces evangelicals to modern forms of doctrine and theology both Protestant and Roman Catholic He does so by discussing the basics of orthodoxy by speaking to the various points of accomodation that have resulted in new forms of theology and by dissecting liberalism and its effect on evangelicalism This book is thus a family tree of modern theology showing how the various contemporary forms and those that preceded them are related to each other With its comprehensive analysis The End of Liberal Theology is destined to be a yardstick by which critical evaluations of current doctrines both old and new liberal and conservative will be made

Encounter, 1995 Provocative Essays on the Practice of Religion and Culture in African Society Bartholomew Udealo Chidili, 2005 Theological Education in the Catholic Tradition Patrick W. Carey, Earl C.
