Creating Identity in the Victorian Fictional Autobiography Heidi L. Pennington, 2018-04-30 This is the first book length study of the fictional autobiography a subgenre that is at once widely recognizable and rarely examined as a literary form with its own history and dynamics of interpretation Heidi L Pennington shows that the narrative form and genre expectations associated with the fictional autobiography in the Victorian period engages readers in a sustained meditation on the fictional processes that construct selfhood both in and beyond the text Through close readings of Jane Eyre David Copperfield and other well known examples of the subgenre Pennington shows how the Victorian fictional autobiography subtly but persistently illustrates that all identities are fictions Despite the subgenre s radical implications regarding the nature of personal identity fictional autobiographies were popular in their own time and continue to inspire devotion in readers This study sheds new light on what makes this subgenre so compelling up to and including in the present historical moment of precipitous social and technological change As we continue to grapple with the existential question of what determines who we really are this book explores the risks and rewards of embracing conscious acts of fictional self production in an unstable world

God's Autopsy and the Living Truth of Soul Hal Childs, 2022-08-22 The Grand Narrative of Christianity that the Bible created is dead and the Bible is silent Does the Bible have anything relevant to say to our modern circumstances We ask where did God come from What happened to God God s Autopsy reinterprets soul and God as historical psychological phenomena related to the cultural structure of consciousness the invisible shared context of thought which has changed dramatically over the past three millennia This book offers a new way to understand the trajectory of Western civilization by making the implicit foundation of Western consciousness soul visible and conscious Our modern Western consciousness is radically different from that of antiquity when the Bible emerged Jung s psychological philosophical insight that whenever we speak about the psyche it is the psyche speaking about itself leads to the realization that today consciousness has come home to itself Beginning with preliterate polytheism the emergence of the transcendent god Yahweh and Christ which led directly to the Enlightenment objective soul continues to unfold itself How did late modernity become a topsy turvy quantum virtual digital impersonal and abstract world that appears to be running away from us The answer is unexpectedly and shockingly in the Bible itself Feeling Psychologically Treated, and Prolegomena to Psychology Denton Jaques Snider,1905 Postal Rates United States.
