Community Building Leonard Jason, 1997-07-23 This work is a description of vulnerabilities that help account for many of the serious problems facing contemporary society in industrialized countries including high rates of crime homelessness alcohol tobacco and other drug addictions and a breakdown of the psychological sense of community Historical philosophical and epistemological issues are also explored in this book as a foundation for understanding what appears to have gone wrong Several solutions are suggested borrowing heavily from the fields of education religion and mythology Several wisdom traditions are presented as illustrations of alternative conceptualizations for defining mental health along with discussion of the implications of borrowing from these models to set new directions for the helping fields The final chapters provide examples from communities of healing to successful community based interventions of how these elements promote human well being and social improvement today On Creating a Community William Polowniak, 1994 Humiliated That's how Anastasia Krupnik feels whenever she tries to climb the ropes in gym class How come everyone else can climb up those hateful ropes Since Anastasia has decided to become a journalist it should be easy to answer most questions Then why can t she understand about Daphne Bellingham s parents divorce And why can t she please Ms Willoughby in gym class Finally Anastasia thinks she has the answers When a team of foreign educators comes to visit her school she plans a big surprise that will amaze her classmates Ms Willoughby and the visitors What will she do when her big moment arrives

Community Organizing and Community Building for Health Meredith Minkler,1997 An important contribution to expanding the community organizing knowledge and skills base of students and practitioners in public health health education social work and related disciplines Dr Nicholas Freudenberg Professor of Community Health Education Hunter College CUNY Superbia!
