

"A DAY IN THE LIFE: REINDEER CARETAKER EDITION" - CAREER EXPLORATION PROJECT

CTE
Warehouse

Grades 6th -12

Objective: To synthesize your research findings from the "A Day in the Life" worksheet into a comprehensive and visually appealing media piece that can be presented to your class.

Instructions:

- Choose Your Format! Select an appropriate format for your presentation. This could be an infographic, poster, Google Slides, Prezi, or a video presentation. Ensure your choice is approved by your instructor.
- Gather Content! Compile all the information, data, and any images or quotes from your worksheet. Organize this material by the sections of the worksheet.
- Create an Outline! Draft a structure for your media piece. For a video presentation, this might mean assigning topics to individual slides. For an infographic or poster, decide the flow of information from top to bottom or left to right.
- Design Principles: Apply basic design principles.
 - Contrast: Use contrasting colors for text and background for readability.
 - Repetition: Stick to a consistent color scheme and font selection.
 - Alignment: Keep your text and images aligned to create a clean look.
 - Proximity: Group related items together to organize information logically.
- Visual Elements: Incorporate visuals such as charts, graphs, photographs, or icons to complement your text. Use high-quality images and ensure you have the rights to use them.
- Create the Media Piece:
 - For infographics/posters: Use tools like Canva or Adobe Spark. Include headings for each section, under each heading, use bullet points, images, and short blocks of text to convey your findings.
 - For video presentations: Use Google Slides or PowerPoint. Include a title slide, an introduction, a slide for each section of the worksheet, a conclusion, and a slide for references. Use bullet points, images, and short paragraphs.
