Carnal Crimes:

Carnal Crimes John Dunning, 1990 Unbroken Angela Sterritt, 2023-05-30 A remarkable life story Angela Sterritt is a formidable storyteller and a passionate advocate Cherie Dimaline author of The Marrow Thieves Sterritt's story is living proof of how courageous Indigenous women are Tanya Talaga author of Seven Fallen Feathers and All Our Relations Unbroken is an extraordinary work of memoir and investigative journalism focusing on missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls written by an award winning Gitksan journalist who survived life on the streets against all odds As a Gitksan teenager navigating life on the streets Angela Sterritt wrote in her journal to help her survive and find her place in the world Now an acclaimed journalist she writes for major news outlets to push for justice and to light a path for Indigenous women girls and survivors In her brilliant debut Sterritt shares her memoir alongside investigative reporting into cases of missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada showing how colonialism and racism led to a society where Sterritt struggled to survive as a young person and where the lives of Indigenous women and girls are ignored and devalued Growing up Sterritt was steeped in the stories of her ancestors grandparents who carried bentwood boxes of berries hunted and trapped and later fought for rights and title to that land But as a vulnerable young woman kicked out of the family home and living on the street Sterritt inhabited places that today are infamous for being communities where women have gone missing or been murdered Vancouver's Downtown Eastside and later on Northern BC's Highway of Tears Sterritt faced darkness she experienced violence from partners and strangers and saw friends and community members die or go missing But she navigated the street group homes and SROs to finally find her place in journalism and academic excellence at university relying entirely on her own strength resilience and creativity along with the support of her ancestors and community to find her way She could have been me Sterritt acknowledges today and her empathy for victims survivors and families drives her present day investigations into the lives of missing and murdered Indigenous women In the end Sterritt steps into a place of power demanding accountability from the media and the public exposing racism and showing that there is much work to do on the path towards understanding the truth But most importantly she proves that the strength and brilliance of Indigenous women is unbroken and that together they can build lives of joy and abundance Fatal Confession Carolyn Strange, 2025-10-15 When the body of thirteen year old Linda Lampkin was found raped and strangled on Toronto's industrial waterfront in 1956 locals feared a sex maniac was on the loose Within a day detectives announced the arrest of Robert Fitton He was charged with murder although Fitton claimed the sex was consensual and the strangulation accidental Fatal Confession is a compelling analysis of that violent encounter and the ensuing legal and political entanglements which ended in the hanging of Fitton despite the jury's and judge's recommendation of mercy The case exposed judicial ambivalence about the criminal definition of constructive murder in connection with rape disagreements over the voluntariness of confessions to police and widespread doubt over the culpability of males tempted by precocious females Weaving together politics culture legal history and biography Fatal Confession unravels a case that ultimately called into question both capital punishment and masculinist legal interpretations of sexual consent The Criminal Jurisprudence of Louisiana Robert Hardin Marr,1923 The Erotic Thriller in Contemporary Cinema Linda Ruth Williams,2005 This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film the erotic thriller Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre s exploitation of pornography and noir discusses mainstream stars including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone as well as genre branded direct to video stars charts the work of key producers and directors and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure She maps the history of the genre analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction and In the Cut to straight to video film titles such as Carnal Crimes Sins of Desire and Night Eyes Williams s witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex and its censorship at the beginning of the 21st century She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally Minnesota Reports Minnesota.
