Russell,2017-10-13 Excerpt from The Candle of Vision When I am in my room looking upon the walls I have painted I see there re ections of the personal life but when I look through the windows I see a living nature and land scapes not painted by hands So too when I meditate I feel in the images and thoughts which throng about me the re ections of personality but there are also windows in the soul through which can be seen images created not by human but by the divine imagination I have tried according to my capacity to report about the divine order and to discriminate between that which was self begotten fantasy and that which came About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Candle of Vision George William Erskine Russell,1990 Discusses concepts that anticipated the modern human potential movement by half a century Russell taught creative visualization and believed that the creative powers of imagination could become a passport to other worlds This study of the true nature of visionary exploration will appeal to the artist and the poet as well as the mystic
