Canonization And Decanonization:

Canonization and Decanonization A Van Debeek, Karel Van Der Toorn, 1998 This volume is the most wide ranging religio historical study on de canonization ever published It contains significant contributions to the study of canonization in different religions in ancient times as well as in modern societies An Annotated Bibliography adds greatly to its value

Canonization and Decanonization Arie van der Kooij, K. van der Toorn, 1998 Canonization and Decanonization Leiden Institute for the Study of Religions. International Conference, 1998

From Canonical Criticism to Ecumenical Exegesis? Peter-Ben Smit, 2015-07-14 This study explores and compares the role of the canon in the work of Brevard S Childs James A Sanders Peter Stuhlmacher Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI and the Amsterdam School of exegesis thus offering a broad overview of approaches and perspectives within the spectrum covered by canonical criticism In doing so both the theory of canonical criticism offered by each of the five is analysed and a sample of an actual exegesis is discussed Observing that the interplay between text reader and community of interpretation is key to all of these approaches the study proceeds to create a dialogue between canonical criticism and ecumenical hermeneutics which leads to a proposal for an approach to exegesis that integrates elements of canonical hermeneutics ecumenical hermeneutics and intercultural perspectives

The Ascension of Authorship Jed Wyrick, 2004 Tracing the history of the idea of the author beginning with attribution practices of Second Temple and Rabbinic Judaism Wyrick argues that the fusion of Jewish and Hellenistic approaches to attribution helped lead to Augustine's reinvention of the writer of scripture as an author whose texts were governed by both divine will and human intent

Cultural Memory and Early Civilization Jan Assmann, 2011-12-05 Pt 1 The theoretical basis Memory culture Written culture Cultural identity and political imagination pt 2 Case studies Egypt Israel and the invention of religion The birth of history from the spirit of the law Greece and disciplined thinking Cultural memory a summary

Miracles and the Miraculous in Medieval Germanic and Latin Literature Karin E. Olsen, Antonina Harbus, Tette Hofstra, 2004 Dedicated to the miraculous side of the Germania Latina nexus the essays in this collection treat cultural appropriation in saints lives and other religious texts derived from Latin traditions and transmitted through medieval Germanic vernaculars Miracle stories were appealing narratives which travelled well but were usually adapted for their new audiences to reflect localised interests Approaching this recontextualisation from historical theological and literary points of view the contributions pay particular attention to the way the miraculous is retained and refashioned in Latin texts and vernacular redactions from Anglo Saxon England Iceland and the Continent

C.G. Jung and the Humanities Karin Barnaby, Pellegrino D'Acerno, 2017-03-14 C G Jung has been and continues to be a pervasive yet often unacknowledged presence in twentieth century art and intellectual life This timely volume is the first comprehensive attempt to assess this presence and to demonstrate Jung's far reaching cultural impact The distinguished contributors represent a number of views from traditional Jungian to the most contemporary post Jungian stances including feminist non Jungian and anti Jungian positions Jung as seen in this volume addresses a wide range of contemporary issues related to creativity gender religion popular culture and hermeneutics The essays reveal dimensions of his work that extend far beyond psychoanalytical theory and that show his hermeneutics to be a much more subtle and sophisticated methodology than previously allowed by his critics This methodology appears in fact to have anticipated significant aspects of contemporary critical principles and practice The contributors to the volume were among the participants in a major international conference sponsored by Hofstra University and the C G Jung Foundation of New York held in 1986 at Hofstra University They include Thomas Belmonte Robert Bly Joseph Campbell Edward S Casey Stanley Diamond Jean Erdman Leslie Fiedler James Hillman Paul Kugler Ibram Lassaw Neil Levine David L Miller Lucio Pozzi Gilles Quispel Robert Richenburg Carol Schreier Rupprecht Andrew Samuels Harold Schechter and June Singer Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Japanese Journal of Religious Studies, 1999      Organisational Memory as a Function Felix Langenmayr, 2016-05-10 This book is about the past as well as the future in organisations in general and about an organisation's temporal contextualisation in particular The author analyses how organisations are able to construct a present with respect to their past and future The study is based on an empirical case study in which an R D department has been followed for a six month period in order to analyse how an organisation orients itself with respect to its past present and future from the perspective of communication centred social systems theory      New Essays on Dostoyevsky Malcolm V. Jones, Garth M. Terry, 1983-03-31 This book comprises essays to mark the centenary of Dostoyevsky's death in 1881 The first part considers specific works and the second part ranges more widely over aspects of the great novelist's work including essays on Dostoyevsky as philosopher on his religious thought and on formalist and structuralist approaches to his work      Parnell and his Times Joep Leerssen, 2020-12-17 Marked by names such as W B Yeats James Joyce and Patrick Pearse the decade 1910-1920 was a period of revolutionary change in Ireland in literature politics and public opinion What fed the creative and reformist urge besides the circumstances of the moment and a vision of the future The leading experts in Irish history literature and culture assembled in this volume argue that the shadow of the past was also a driving factor the traumatic undigested memory of the defeat and death of the charismatic national leader Charles Stewart Parnell 1846-1891 The authors reassess Parnell's impact on the Ireland of his time its cultural religious political and intellectual life in order to trace his posthumous influence into the early twentieth century in fields such as political activism memory culture history writing and literature      Canon After Deconstruction Rajesh Babu Sharma, 2007 Study on the works of Paul de Man 1919-1983

Belgian born deconstructionist literary critic and theorist Libraries, Translations, and 'canonic' Texts Giuseppe Veltri, 2006 The book deals with the field of decanonization of ancient traditions by the technique of deconstructing their original context in particular the process of canonization of the Greek Torah in Jewish Hellenistic and Christian tradition and its decanonization in Rabbinic literature the use and abuse of the translations of Aquila in Patristic and Rabbinic literature and the substitution of Aquila by Onkelos in Babylonian academies the decanonization of the book of Ben Sira in Rabbinic literature On the basis of his analysis the author concludes that if a canon is the ability of a text to produce and authorize commentary deconstructing its original context by generalization de canonization is the inverse way of contextualizing a canonical text by reconstructing the supposed original context Revealed Texts, Hidden Meanings Hayyim J. Angel, 2009

The Biblical Canons Jean-Marie Auwers, Journées bibliques de Louvain, 2003 Mikhail Bakhtin Gary Saul Morson, Caryl Emerson, 1990 Books about thinkers require a kind of unity that their thought may not possess This cautionary statement is especially applicable to Mikhail Bakhtin whose intellectual development displays a diversity of insights that cannot be easily integrated or accurately described in terms of a single overriding concern Indeed in a career spanning some sixty years he experienced both dramatic and gradual changes in his thinking returned to abandoned insights that he then developed in unexpected ways and worked through new ideas only loosely related to his earlier concerns Small wonder then that Bakhtin should have speculated on the relations among received notions of biography unity innovation and the creative process Unity with respect not only to individuals but also to art culture and the world generally is usually understood as conformity to an underlying structure or an overarching scheme Bakhtin believed that this idea of unity contradicts the possibility of true creativity For if everything conforms to a preexisting pattern then genuine development is reduced to mere discovery to a mere uncovering of something that in a strong sense is already there And yet Bakhtin accepted that some concept of unity was essential Without it the world ceases to make sense and creativity again disappears this time replaced by the purely aleatory There would again be no possibility of anything meaningfully new The grim truth of these two extremes was expressed well by Borges an inescapable labyrinth could consist of an infinite number of turns or of no turns at all Bakhtin attempted to rethink the concept of unity in order to allow for the possibility of genuine creativity The goal in his words was a nonmonologic unity in which real change or surprisingness is an essential component of the creative process As it happens such change was characteristic of Bakhtin's own thought which seems to have developed by continually diverging from his initial intentions Although it would not necessarily follow that the development of Bakhtin's thought corresponded to his ideas about unity and creativity we believe that in this case his ideas on nonmonologic unity are useful in understanding his own thought as well as that of other thinkers whose careers are comparably varied and productive International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1999 Directory of Published Proceedings, 2004 The Multivalence of Biblical Texts and

Theological Meanings Charlene T. Higbe, 2006 This important interdisciplinary collection asks how the same biblical texts shared across Jewish and Christian traditions can be interpreted for different theological reasons and to different theological ends Each article takes a sustained look at the intimate relation between features of particular texts and the generation of theological meanings tracking in each case how different meanings are made or found in the same texts and where meanings diverge in different theologies The book applies the most current historical and literary strategies of biblical interpretation to study the multivalence constitutive of texts and theologies The contributors are John Barton David Carr Stephen T Davis Christian A Eberhart Lincoln E Galloway Gary Gilbert Christine Helmer Kevin Mongrain Bernd Oberdorfer and C R Seitz Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org
