fashions to novels about stock market collapse in Argentina and rubber extraction in the Amazon Beckman explores how Export Age literature anticipated some of the key contradictions faced by contemporary capitalist societies including extreme financial volatility vast social inequality and ever more intense means of exploitation Questioning the opposition between culture and economics in Latin America and elsewhere Capital Fictions shows that literature operated as a powerful form of political economy during this period

Capital (a Critique of Political Economy) Karl Marx, 1930

Objective Fictions Alenka Zupancic, Bostjan Nedoh, Adrian Johnston, 2021-12-07 This collection rethinks the relationship between objectivity and fiction through a series of objective fictions such as fetishes semblances lies rumours sophistry fantasies and conspiracy theories It engages with modern and contemporary philosophical traditions and psychoanalytic theory with all of these orientations being irreducible to either nominalist or realist approaches The contributors are a mix of renowned thinkers and thinkers from the new generation including Slavoj Žižek Mladen Dolar Frank Ruda and Samo Tomšič

Forms of Dictatorship Jennifer Harford Vargas, 2018 An intra ethnic study of Latina o fiction written in the United States from the early 1990s to the present Forms of Dictatorship examines novels that depict the historical reality of dictatorship and exploit dictatorship as a literary trope This literature constitutes a new sub genre of Latina o fiction which the author calls the Latina o dictatorship novel The book illuminates Latina os central contributions to the literary history of the dictatorship novel by analyzing how Latina o writers with national origin roots in the Caribbean Mexico and Central and South America imaginatively represent authoritarianism The novels collectively generate what Harford Vargas terms a Latina o counter dictatorial imaginary that positions authoritarianism on a continuum of domination alongside imperialism white supremacy heteropatriarchy neoliberalism and border militarization Focusing on novels by writers such as Junot Díaz Hector Tobar Cristina García Salvador Plascencia and Francisco Goldman the book reveals how Latina o dictatorship novels foreground more ubiquitous modes of oppression to indict Latin American dictatorships U S imperialism and structural discrimination in the U S as well as repressive hierarchies of power in general Harford Vargas simultaneously utilizes formalist analysis to investigate how Latina o writers mobilize the genre of the novel and formal techniques such as footnotes focalization emplotment and metafiction to depict dictatorial structures and relations In building on narrative theories of character plot temporality and perspective Harford Vargas explores how the Latina o dictatorship novel stages power dynamics Forms of Dictatorship thus queries the relationship between different forms of power and the power of narrative form that is between various instantiations of repressive power structures and the ways in which different narrative structures can reproduce and resist repressive power

Capital Letters Ève Morisi, 2020-03-15 Capital Letters sheds new light on how literature has dealt with society s most violent legal institution the death penalty It investigates this question through the works of three major French authors with markedly distinct political convictions and literary styles Victor Hugo Charles Baudelaire and Albert Camus

Working at the intersection of poetics ethics and law ve Morisi uncovers an unexpected transhistorical dialogue on both the modern death penalty and the ends and means of literature after the French Revolution Through close textual analysis careful contextualization and the critique of violence forged by Giorgio Agamben Michel Foucault and Ren Girard Morisi reveals that despite their differences Hugo Baudelaire and Camus converged in questioning France s humanitarian redefinition of capital punishment dating from the late eighteenth century Conversely capital justice led all three writers to interrogate the functions tools and limits of their art Capital Letters shows that the key modern debate on the political and moral responsibility or autonomy of literature crystallizes around the death penalty in works whose form disturbs the commonly accepted divide between aestheticism and engagement Surplus-Enjoyment Slavoj Žižek,2022-08-11

Contemporary life is defined by excess There must always be more there is never enough We need a surplus to what we need to be able to truly enjoy what we have Slavoj i ek s guide to surplus and why it s enjoyable begins by arguing that what is surplus to our needs is by its very nature unsubstantial and unnecessary But perversely without this surplus we wouldn t be able to enjoy what is substantial and necessary Indeed without the surplus we wouldn t be able to identify what was the perfect amount Is there any escape from the vicious cycle of surplus enjoyment or are we forever doomed to simply want more Engaging with everything from The Joker film to pop songs and Thomas Aquinas to the history of pandemics i ek argues that recognising the society of enjoyment we live in for what it is can provide an explanation for the political impasses in which we find ourselves today And if we begin even a little bit to recognise that the nuggets of enjoyment we find in excess are as flimsy and futile might we find a way out Capital and Interest Eugen von Böhm-Bawerk,1890 Intervention

Narratives Purnima Bose,2020-01-17 Intervention Narratives examines the contradictory cultural representations of the US intervention in Afghanistan that help to justify an imperial foreign policy These narratives involve projecting Afghans as brave anti communist warriors who suffered the consequences of American disengagement with the region following the end of the Cold War as victimized women who can be empowered through enterprise as innocent dogs who need to be saved by US soldiers and as terrorists who deserve punishment for 9 11 Given that much of public political life now involves affect rather than knowledge feelings rather than facts familiar recurring tropes of heroism terrorism entrepreneurship and canine love make the war easier to comprehend and elicit sympathy for US military forces An indictment of US policy Bose demonstrates that contemporary imperialism operates on an ideologically diverse cultural terrain to enlist support for the war across the political spectrum Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1902

The House of Percival John Cox Boyce,1871 The Morrises; Or The Doubtful Marriage. In Three Vols George T. Lowth,1871 Literary News ,1882 Random Recollections of an Old Publisher William Tinsley,1900 The Gentleman's Magazine ,1895 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal ,1924
