Truman Capote Helen S. Garson, 1992 Like a ringmaster at the circus Truman Capote led us from one dazzling act to another in the entertainment that is the twentieth century written word Short stories novels novellas plays film scripts and journalistic pieces dance in turn across the center stage of Capote's imagination bringing to our view such masterpieces as Other Voices Other Rooms 1948 and In Cold Blood 1966 Despite these successes Capote came closest to achieving performance perfection when he turned his attention to shorter works Full of vivid descriptions and colorful characters these stories give us front row seats to the attraction of Capote as both a writer and a human being Capote originally Truman Streckfus Persons was born in New Orleans in 1924 the product of a very unstable marriage Often neglected the young boy spent a lot of time with relatives mostly in Alabama When his mother divorced his father to marry a more successful businessman Truman moved north with the couple and took his stepfather's surname. The Capotes lived in Greenwich and New York where Truman would make his permanent base and where he would start stitching together the disparate threads of his unsettling childhood and make of them a grand tapestry revealing the frustration of life in contemporary America. These connections between fact and fiction are carefully analyzed by Helen S. Carson as are the links between the short fiction and Capote's longer works. She has provided the reader with a comprehensive yet very readable study of one of Capote's more neglected genres.

A Writer's Reader Donald Hall, Donald Lewis Embler, 1979. Highly respected poets Hall and Emblem have chosen classical and contemporary selections to make this a delightful writer's companion. Now in its ninth edition, A Writer's Reader is a collection of essays, short stories, and poems organized alphabetically by author. Several readings by the same author are provided for a closer look at a writer's style. A rhetorical and thematic index is included to allow readers a way of cross-referencing selections. Overall, A Writer's Reader contains an appealing range of types of selections: essays, a few short stories, a lecture, and a few poems. The collection includes both classic and contemporary writers such as Maya Angelou, W. H. Auden, Ralph Ellison, Louise Erdrich, Robert Frost, Langston Hughes, Tillie Olsen, Brent Staples, Henry David Thoreau, Mark Twain, Alice Walker, and many others.
