Captives Trail:

Setting All the Captives Free Ian K. Steele, 2013-10-24 Among the many upheavals in North America caused by the French and Indian War was a commonplace practice that affected the lives of thousands of men women and children being taken captive by rival forces Most previous studies of captivity in early America are content to generalize from a small selection of sources often centuries apart In Setting All the Captives Free Ian Steele presents from a mountain of data the differences rather than generalities as well as how these differences show the variety of circumstances that affected captives experiences The product of a herculean effort to identify and analyze the captives taken on the Allegheny frontier during the era of the French and Indian War Setting All the Captives Free is the most complete study of this topic Steele explores genuine doctored and fictitious accounts in an innovative challenge to many prevailing assumptions and arguments revealing that Indians demonstrated humanity and compassion by continuing to take numerous captives when their opponents took none by adopting and converting captives into kin during the war and by returning captives even though doing so was a humiliating act that betrayed their societies values A fascinating and comprehensive work by an acclaimed scholar Setting All the Captives Free takes the study of the French and Indian War in America to an exciting new level The Boy Captives Clinton Lafayette Smith, 1927 Captive's Trail Will C. Knott, Bill Knott, 1988 Yala Don L. Clark, 2010-11-03 East Meets West and At the end of the 19th Century a female Chinese assassin and two former Texas Rangers team up to free enslaved immigrant Chinese workers from a cabal of Chinese aristocrats who attempt to create a New China in the area between Mexico and Texas American Trail Series, 1922 Captive Trail Susan Page Davis, 2011-09-01 The Captive Trail is second in a six book series about four generations of the Morgan family living fighting and thriving amidst a turbulent Texas history spanning from 1845 to 1896 Although a series each book can be read on its own Taabe Waipu has run away from her Comanche village and is fleeing south in Texas on a horse she stole from a dowry left outside her family's teepee The horse has an accident and she is left on foot injured and exhausted She staggers onto a road near Fort Chadbourne and collapses On one of the first runs through Texas Butterfield Overland Mail Company driver Ned Bright carries two Ursuline nuns returning to their mission station They come across a woman who is nearly dead from exposure and dehydration and take her to the mission With some detective work Ned discovers Taabe Waipu identity He plans to unite her with her family but the Comanche have other ideas and the two end up defending the mission station Through Taabe and Ned we learn the true meaning of healing and restoration amid seemingly powerless situations Children of the Sun Alif Sahib Lumumba Lim Nam Yah'ya', 2019 A saga of young men and women cruelly kidnapped from their native land to toil mercilessly on foreign soils The humiliation and inhumane treatment they endure is like none ever recorded on this earth But even as they struggle with their predicament they remain true to their belief that a higher power will liberate them from their torture That power manifests in the natives of the land who fare no better than the captives yet are strong enough to manage some semblance of their former life before the kidnappers came This allows them to aid the captives until they acquire the wherewithal to help themselves
