Cancer Ward Alert:

Cancer Ward Alert Neven Orhel, 1996-07-01 Cancer Ward Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, 1991-11-01 Cancer Ward examines the relationship of a group of people in the cancer ward of a provincial Soviet hospital in 1955 two years after Stalin's death. We see them under normal circumstances and also reexamined at the eleventh hour of illness. Together they represent a remarkable cross section of contemporary Russian characters and attitudes. The experiences of the central character Oleg Kostoglotov closely reflect the author's own. Solzhenitsyn himself became a patient in a cancer ward in the mid 1950s on his release from a labor camp and later recovered. Translated by Nicholas Bethell and David Burg Cancer Ward Александр Исаевич Солженицын, 1968 One of the great allegorical masterpieces of world literature. Cancer Ward is both a deeply compassionate study of people facing terminal illness and a brilliant dissection of the cancerous Soviet police state cancer ward alexander solzhenitsyn, 1969 Airman, 1981 Cancer Disparities Ronit Elk, 2012 There has been remarkable progress in understanding, preventing, detecting, diagnosing, and treating cancer, resulting in a reduction of cancer incidence and mortality in the United States. Despite this, the cancer burden varies considerably by race, ethnicity, and socioeconomic status. Cancer incidence rates vary markedly between racial/ethnic groups, but even more startling are the differences in outcome across groups. Cancer Disparities: Causes and Evidence-Based Solutions helps readers understand the scope and causes of this inequity by providing a detailed analysis of the many factors that result in cancer disparities across the cancer continuum, including the role of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, access to and use of services, insurance status, geographic variables, and differences in treatment provided to patients. Further, it is the first book to describe evidence-based, concrete solutions that can be used to reduce or even eliminate cancer health disparities. Fifteen previously unpublished studies of interventions designed specifically to achieve health equality are described. These studies focus on contextually and culturally appropriate strategies to enhance cancer prevention, screening, and early detection, treatment, symptom management, and quality of life in underserved populations NTIS Alert, 1999 Annals of Surgery, 1923 Includes the transactions of the American Surgical Association, New York Surgical Society, Philadelphia Academy of Surgery, Southern Surgical Association, Central Surgical Association, and at various times of other similar organizations McCall's, 1953 Communicating with Cancer Patients and Their Families Andrew Blitzer, 1990 Head and Neck Cancer Donald G. McQuarrie, 1986 Death Notification Russell Moroni Leash, 1994 If it is your job to notify a family that a death has occurred or is soon expected, how do you do it right? Using vivid examples, Leash guides the reader through this difficult task in a wide variety of situations. His research and personal experience will help you to meet the family's needs in a constructive, helpful way and to avoid the all-too-common mistakes that can compound the tragedy. Important reading for physicians, nurses, emergency personnel, clergy, law enforcement, military, and social workers The Guardian Index, 1997 The Black Alchemists Gar Wilson, 1984 The Black Alchemists by Gar Wilson, released on May 25, 1984, is available now for
