Cannot Plead Black Anymore Harold Eugene Byrd, 1978-01-01     The Dialectics of Betrayal Aaron David Gresson, 1982     Black Heritage , 1980     Cognition and Symbolic Structures Robert E. Haskell, 1987 This volume is organized around the view that metaphor is an important cognitive process Metaphor can no longer be considered the sole domain of language although this is one important research domain as some of the chapters in the volume demonstrate The chapters reflect the modern history of metaphor and cover many of the ways metaphor is conceptualized and applied The book also explores a number of functions and characteristics and implications of the metaphoric process including that metaphoric processes originate in a sensory motor affective matrix that they may be based in a neurological substrate that they are manifested developmentally in various forms that cognitively the comprehension of metaphor may depend on an abstract featureless conceptual base that they figure significantly in some pathological syndromes and in therapeutic discourse     Subject Guide to Books in Print , 2001     Catalog of Copyright Entries, Fourth Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978-10     Paperbound Books in Print , 1992     Blacks at Harvard Werner Sollors, Caldwell Titcomb, Thomas A. Underwood, 1993-03 The history of blacks at Harvard mirrors for better or for worse the history of blacks in the United States Harvard too has been indelibly scarred by slavery exclusion segregation and other forms of racist oppression At the same time the nation s oldest university has also at various times stimulated supported or allowed itself to be influenced by the various reform movements that have dramatically changed the nature of race relations across the nation The story of blacks at Harvard is thus inspiring but painful instructive but ambiguous a paradoxical episode in the most vexing controversy of American life the race question The first and only book on its subject Blacks at Harvard is distinguished by the rich variety of its sources Included in this documentary history are scholarly overviews poems short stories speeches well known memoirs by the famous previously unpublished memoirs by the lesser known newspaper accounts letters official papers of the university and transcripts of debates Among Harvard s black alumni and alumnae are such illustrious figures as W E B Du Bois Monroe Trotter and Alain Locke Countee Cullen and Sterling Brown both received graduate degrees The editors have collected here writings as diverse as those of Booker T Washington William Hastie Malcolm X and Muriel Snowden to convey the complex ways in which Harvard has affected the thinking of African Americans and the ways in turn in which African Americans have influenced the traditions of Harvard and Radcliffe Notable among the contributors are significant figures in African American letters Phyllis Wheatley William Melvin Kelley Marita Bonner James Alan McPherson and Andrea Lee Equally prominent in the book are some of the nation s leading historians Carter Woodson Rayford Logan John Hope Franklin and Nathan I Huggins A vital sourcebook Blacks at Harvard is certain to nourish scholarly inquiry into the social and intellectual history of African Americans at elite national institutions and serves as a telling metaphor of this nation s past     Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of

The definitive look at one of the most important Black art films and original filmmakers of the 1970s Bill Gunn's Ganja Hess 1973 has across the decades attained a sizable cult following among African American cinema devotees art house aficionados and horror fans thanks to its formal complexity and rich allegory Pleading the Blood is the first full length study of this cult classic Ganja Hess was withdrawn almost immediately after its New York premiere by its distributor because Gunn's poetic re-fashioning of the vampire genre allegedly failed to satisfy the firm's desire for a by the numbers blaxploitation horror flick for quick sell off in the urban market Its current status as one of the classic works of African American cinema has recently been confirmed by the Blu-ray release of its restored version by its continued success in screenings at repertory houses museums and universities and by an official remake Da Sweet Blood of Jesus 2014 directed by Spike Lee one of the original picture's longtime champions Pleading the Blood draws on Gunn's archived papers screenplay drafts and storyboards as well as interviews with the living major creative participants to offer a comprehensive absorbing account of the influential movie and its highly original filmmaker National Union Catalog, 1980

Includes entries for maps and atlases National Union Catalog, 1980, 1981 Langston Hughes, 1990-07-26 Langston Hughes was the first black writer to be taken seriously by the general literary public and with the current resurgence of interest in the evolution of black American writing he continues to be a primary subject of study for scholars and students throughout the world This bio-bibliography is the first annotated collection of materials on Hughes's life and work and compiler Thomas Mikolyzk has made the work even more valuable by verifying the relative availability of each item cited and noting where certain materials can be found The up to date listings provide both primary and secondary sources and focus on works by Hughes as well as those written about him The work begins with a chronology of events in Hughes's life followed by a brief biography The annotations are then divided into four major sections books by Hughes shorter works by Hughes books about Hughes and articles about Hughes Each citation is given an alphanumeric code to denote its category and entry number All collectable published works by Hughes are cited here as is virtually every critical piece published throughout the world including contemporary reviews scholarly articles essays and book length commentaries and dissertations In addition to these annotated citations two appendixes are included The first provides an alphabetical listing of Hughes's works including place and date of publication and the second describes special collections in America of Hughes's personal material as well as detailing The Langston Hughes Review the official journal of The Langston Hughes Society Three indexes covering author title and subject conclude the work This book will be an important resource for courses in American literature and African American history and a significant addition to high school public and academic libraries Books in Print, 1994 Plea Bargaining Milton Heumann, 2020-05-30 That relatively few criminal cases in this country are resolved by full Perry Mason

style trials is fairly common knowledge Most cases are settled by a guilty plea after some form of negotiation over the charge or sentence But why The standard explanation is case pressure the enormous volume of criminal cases to be processed with limited staff time and resources But a large body of new empirical research now demands that we re examine plea negotiation Milton Heumann s book Plea Bargaining strongly and explicitly attacks the case pressure argument and suggests an alternative explanation for plea bargaining based on the adaptation of attorneys and judges to the local criminal court The book is a significant and welcome addition to the literature Heumann s investigation of case pressure and plea negotiation demonstrates solid research and careful analysis Michigan Law Review Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980 Subject Catalog, 1980 Library of Congress,1980 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1980 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 A Pride of Lions Tri-University Project in Elementary Education (U.S.),1968
