Capital Castles:

Castles Charles Oman, 1926 This book is the result of two most interesting if rather laborious journeys devoted to castle seeking one in 1924 covering Wales and the English counties along the Welsh border the other in 1925 devoted to Somerset Devon and Cornwall Of eighty castles described in full all but six were carefully inspected and recorded by my own note book and my son's photographs The object of this book is to explain the historical and architectural interest of each castle so that the visitor may appreciate its meaning v Preface Polk's (Trow's) New York Copartnership and Corporation Directory, Boroughs of Manhattan and Bronx, 1919 Late Medieval Castles Robert Liddiard, 2016 A collection of the most significant articles in castle studies with contributions from scholars in history archaeology historic buildings and landscape archaeology The castles of the late medieval period represent some of the finest medieval monuments in Britain with an almost infinite capacity to fascinate and draw controversy They are also a source of considerable academic debate The contents of this volume represent key works in castle scholarship Topics discussed include castle warfare fortress customs architectural design and symbolism spatial planning and the depiction of castles in medieval romance The contributions also serve to highlight the diversity of approaches to the medieval castle ranging from the study of documentary and literary sources analysis of fragmentary architectural remains and the recording of field archaeology The result is a survey that offers an in depth analysis of castle building from the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries and places castles within their broader social architectural and political contexts Robert Liddiard is Professor of History University of East Anglia Contributors Nicola Coldstream Charles Coulson Philip Dixon Graham Fairclough P A Faulkner John Goodall Beryl Lott Charles McKean T E McNeill Richard K Morris Michael Prestwich Christopher Taylor Muriel A Whitaker The Capital, 1898 Castles in Medieval Society Charles Coulson, 2004 In this challenging new book Charles Coulson overturns many of the traditional assumptions about the nature and purpose of castle building in the middle ages He demolishes the traditional belief that castles were overwhelmingly military in their function showing how this was simply one aspect of a more complicated whole He sets out to recreate the medieval understanding of castles as symbolically fortified places of all kinds from ancient walled post Roman towns and prestigious religious enclaves to transitory campaign forts Going back to the original sources Dr Coulson proposes a new and more subtle understanding of the function and symbolism of castles as well as vivid insights into the lives of the people who inhabited them Fortresses were only occasionally caught up in war but constantly were central to the ordinary life of all classes of the nobility and gentry of widows and heiresses of prelates and clergy of peasantry and townspeople alike Castles in Medieval Society presents and explores this broad social panorama Britton, 1901 Surrey's Capital Joseph Ernest Morris, 1901 The Capital Region of New York State Francis Paton Kimball, 1942 Abbeys, Castles, and Ancient Halls of England and Wales; Their Legendary Lore and Popular History. Rebuilding Lives After Genocide Linda Asquith, 2019-03-27 This book examines how genocide survivors rebuild their lives following migration after genocide Drawing on a mixture of in depth interviews and published testimony it utilises Bourdieu's concept of social capital to highlight how individuals reconstruct their lives in a new country The data comprises in depth interviews with survivors of the Rwandan and Bosnian genocides and the Holocaust This combination of data allows for a broader analysis of the themes within the data Overall Rebuilding Lives After Genocide seeks to demonstrate that a constructivist grounded theoretical approach to research can draw attention to experiences that have been hidden and unheard The life of survivors in the wake of genocides is a neglected field particularly in the context of migration and resettlement Therefore this book provides a unique insight into the debate surrounding recovery from victimisation and the intersection between migration and victimisation Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Journal, 1921 Lonely Planet's Ultimate Travelist stay exit entrance in the context of the structural institutional social changes that followed 1 independence from the Soviet Union in 1990 2 EU accession in 2004 and 3 the 2008 2009 economic crisis with austerity The third article brings into the debate the perspective of the sending Baltic countries in a broader context of the East West migration debate The dissertation shows that the consequences of the neoliberal policies of the post communist and post crisis transformations together with the construction of formal migration channels after EU accession constitute various migrant categories Individual strategies of actively looking for channels to exit and enter combining them in different ways at various points of the migratory process and establishing informal social networks are re constituting who can be and who is a migrant Furthermore following the economic crisis and austerity measures the decision to emigrate extends beyond individual survival strategies instead becoming bound to an individual s perception of the ine quality of life and pursuit of a better quality of life for oneself and one s family across time and in different places Finally as the interviewed Baltic experts agree the EU s policy of the free movement is socially and economically problematic although the official Baltic states policy responses focus primarily on talented and needed diaspora members return or engagement These policies have proved to be inadequate to address demographic and socioeconomic challenges in part brought about by emigration The structural institutional conditions states and migrants strategies engender mobility as a social norm in the sending countries and promote and constitute the perpetuation of migration of both precarious labour migrants and active talented EU mobile citizens Avhandlingen avser att bidra b de teoretiskt och empiriskt till kad kunskap om den fria rrligheten inom EU med fokus p arbetskraftmigration fr n Litauen till Sverige Inspirerad av kritisk realism som samh llsvetenskaplig metod r syftet att bidra till att f rklara s v l dynamiken i som det individuella beslutsfattandet bakom den omfattande arbetsutvandringen fr n de baltiska staterna samt att diskutera dess socioekonomiska konsekvenser och politiska inverkan Teoretiskt utg r avhandlingen fr n en modell som syntetiserar social transformation med en utstr ckt version av Hirschmans analytiska ramverk f r sorti protest och lojalitet De tre empiriska artiklarna som huvudsakligen bygger p semistrukturerade djupintervjuer ligger inom detta ramverk Tv av artiklarna syftar till att f rklara migranternas beslutsprocess i fr ga om stay exit entrance mot bakgrund av de strukturella och institutionella sociala f r ndrningarna som f ljde av 1 sj lvst ndighetsf rklaringen fr n Sovjetunionen 1990 2 anslutningen till EU 2004 och 3 den ekonomiska krisen 2008 2009 med f ljande tstramningar Den tredje artikeln f r in de baltiska l ndernas eget perspektiv i den bredare st v stliga migrationsdebatten Avhandlingen visar att f ljden av den postkommunistiska neoliberala politiken och omvandlingen efter den ekonomiska krisen tillsammans med uppbyggnaden av formella migrationskanaler efter anslutningen till EU bidrar till att skapa olika migrantkategorier Individuella strategier f r att aktivt leta efter kanaler f r exit och enter kombinera dem p olika s tt och utifr n olika stadier i migrationsprocessen samt etablera informella sociala n tverk bidrar till att re konstituera vem som kan vara och vem som r en migrant Vidare efter den ekonomiska krisen och de inf rda tstramnings tgrderna handlar beslutet om att emigrera inte bara om individuella levnadsstrategier utan också om individuella uppfattningar om vad som är livskvalitet och inte på engelska quality of life liksom strävan efter en bättre livskvalitet för sig själv och sin familj över tid och rum. Slutligen som de intervjuade baltiska experterna berättar om EU:s politik för fri rörlighet socialt och ekonomiskt problematiskt även om den officiella baltiska politiken i första hand fokuserar på begärande och nödvändiga diasporamedlemmars engagemang eller utvärderande. Denna politik har visat sig vara otillräcklig för att ta itu med demografiska och socioekonomiska utmaningar som delvis orsakades av utvandring. De strukturella, institutionella förhållandena och staternas och migranternas strategier skapar rörlighet som en social norm i linje med framträdande utvandring och bidrar till fortsatt migration både vad gäller prekära arbetskraftsmigranter och aktiva och begärande EU-mobila medborgare.
