Capitol Offences:

Chamber's Encyclopaedia ,1875 Capital Punishment in the Pentateuch Simon Skidmore,2022-11-17 Through the application of mimetic theory Skidmore examines the social impact of capital punishment upon the community and explores the cathartic nature of this practice within key Pentateuchal texts Skidmore shows how Mimetic theorists such as Girard advance a view that a community ravaged by vengeance and blood feuds may be saved from extinction by scapegoating one of their own As the community select a common scapegoat and vent their collective violence upon this person peace and order are restored Though an in depth analysis of various passages Skidmore reveals this process in key Pentateuchal texts concerning capital punishment These observations suggest that biblical capital punishment may have functioned as a means of protecting the Israelite community by managing rivalry and violence The Harmsworth Encyclopædia ,1905 Nelson's Encyclopaedia ,1907 The new Popular encyclopedia. Under the gen. ed. of C. Annandale Charles Annandale,1901 The Imperial dictionary, on the basis of Webster's English dictionary John Ogilvie,1882 Chambers's Encyclopædia ,1888 Three papers on capital punishment. Supreme Court,1895 Caribbean Criminal Practice Dana Seetahal,2001-09-03 This is the first book of its kind in the Commonwealth Caribbean on Criminal Procedure Furthermore it is written by someone who has over twenty years experience in the field as a prosecutor for over a dozen years as a magistrate as a criminologist a criminal justice consultant and finally as a law school lecturer This book fills a lacuna in Commonwealth Caribbean jurisprudence in that there is currently no local or regional text on criminal practice and procedure For too long students and practitioners have had to waste time to wade through English and other text in areas that are not even relevant in order to determine their application to these jurisdictions The book provides a useful reference to clarify what the state of the statutory law is in the Caribbean when compared to similar areas in English law and to discuss the relevant statute and common law in specific areas It is a text useful not only for law school students but criminal justice professionals such as lawyers and police officers as well The content of the book includes both the statute law and common law on criminal practice and procedure in most of the relevant jurisdictions which include Trinidad Tobago Guyana Barbados Jamaica and Grenada among others Where the law is the same or similar in some jurisdictions this is emphasised in the text so as to avoid unnecessary repetition in discussion Attempts will be made to identify specific differences in the laws of different jurisdictions despite their being many commonalities Recent developments in these areas are also discussed and the impact of the statutory changes in some countries is assessed

Reports on Criminal Law, 1834 The Imperial Dictionary of the English Language John Ogilvie, 1882 Reports of Cases Ruled and Adjudged in the Several Courts of the United States and of Pennsylvania Alexander James Dallas, 1907 The Case Against Capital Punishment Norman Douglas Deuchar, 1925
