Extreme Birder Lynn E. Barber, 2011-03-17 One woman one year 723 species of birds In 2008 Lynn Barber's passion for birding led her to drive fly sail walk stalk and sit in search of birds in twenty five states and three provinces Traveling more than 175 000 miles she set a twenty first century record at the time second to only one other person in history Over 272 days Barber observed 723 species of birds in North America north of Mexico recording a remarkable 333 new species in January but with the dwindling returns typical to Big Year birding only eight in December a month that found her crisscrossing the continent from Texas to Newfoundland from Washington to Ontario In the months between she felt every extreme of climate well being and emotion But whether finally spotting an elusive Blue Bunting or seeing three species of eiders in a single day she was also challenged inspired and rewarded by nearly every experience Barber's journal from her American Birding Association sanctioned Big Year covers the highlights of her treks to forests canyons mountain ranges deserts oceans lakes and numerous spots in between Written in the informal style of a diary it captures the detail humor challenges and fun of a good adventure travelogue and also conveys the remarkable diversity of North American birds and habitat For actual or would be travel birders Lynn Barber's Extreme Birder provides a fascinating binoculars eye view of one of the best loved pastimes of nature lovers everywhere Lynn Barber challenges a traditionally male dominated pursuit the birding big year and is successful beyond her wildest dreams She is an inspiration for all who love adventure nature and birds Lynn Hassler author Birds of the American Southwest

Big Years, Biggest States Lynn E. Barber, 2020-04-30 Undertaking a Big Year requires a more extreme version of planning than what is needed to bird in a typical year In a Big Year a birder is trying to see or hear new birds every day day after day throughout the whole year The first woman to complete a North American Big Year continental United States and Canada and identify over 700 species Lynn E Barber clocked more than 175 000 miles and ticked off a then record setting 723 species over twelve months in 2008 Yet even as an anomaly a female birder in the then male dominated world of competitive birding she took the initiative to reimagine the whole idea of a Big Year in the two biggest states in the country At home in both Texas and Alaska Barber offers an inside look into how to plan execute and thoroughly enjoy a year of finding the birds that inhabit two of the nation's most diverse landscapes The drastic differences between the climate geography plant life and habitat at the far northern and southern edges of the US mainland mean seeing a distinct number of birds in each state that are not found in the other Yet as states with both coastal and international boundaries Texas and Alaska provide countless opportunities to see the most seasonally varied far flying and specifically adapted birds in the world As Barber chronicles her travels throughout the Texan and Alaskan landscapes serious and casual birders alike will appreciate her lively and informative prose and commitment to her distinct approach to the Big Year challenge

Golden Wings and Other Stories about Birders and Birding Pete Dunne, 2003-04-01 Dubbed the Bard of America's Bird Watchers by the Wall Street Journal Pete Dunne knows birders and birding instinctively and completely He understands the compulsion that drives other birders to go out at first light whatever the weather for a chance to maybe just maybe glimpse that rare migrant that someone might have spotted in a patch of woods the day before yesterday And yet he also knows how well strange the birding obsession becomes when viewed through the eyes of a nonbirder His dual perspective totally engrossed in birding yet still aware of the odd birdness of some birders makes reading his essays a pure pleasure whether you pursue the feather quest or not This book collects forty one of Dunne's recent essays drawn from his columns in Living Bird Wild Bird News the New Jersey Sunday section of the New York Times Birder's World and other publications Written with his signature wit and insight they cover everything from a moment of awed communion with a Wandering Albatross the most beautiful thing I'd ever seen to Dunne's imagined perfect bird The Perfect Bird is the size of a turkey has the wingspan of an eagle the legs of a crane the feet of a moorhen and the talons of a great horned owl It eats kudzu surplus zucchini feral cats and has been known to predate upon homeowners who fire up their lawn mowers before 7 00 A M on the weekend The title essay pays whimsical yet heartfelt tribute to Dunne's mentor the late birding legend Roger Tory Peterson

American Birding Association Field Guide to Birds of New York Corey Finger, 2015-09-01 A comprehensive guide to New York birdwatching from the American Birding Association The Empire State is one of the best places for birding in North America from the Adirondack Mountains in the north the Finger Lakes in the west the Hudson Valley in the east and the marshes bays and beaches of the south New York provides habitats for an amazing array of birds As a flyover state for many migrating species backyard birders can see hundreds of species per year as they head north in the spring and south for the winter The American Birding Association Field Guide to Birds of New York includes more than 300 species birders are most likely to see in the state Illustrated with hundreds of crisp color photographs it includes descriptions of each bird along with tips of when and where to see them written by an expert New York birder It is the perfect companion for anyone interested in the amazing diversity and beauty of the birds of New York
