Making Youth: A History of Youth in Modern Britain Melanie Tebbutt, 2017-09-16 This new study explores how British youth was made and how it made itself over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Urbanisation and industrialisation brought challenges that altered how young people were both perceived and understood As adults found it difficult to comprehend the rapidity of societal change focus on the young intensified and they became a symbol of uncertainty about the future Highlighting both change and striking continuity Melanie Tebbutt traces the origins and development of key themes and debates in the history of modern British youth Current issues such as the ageing of western societies high levels of youth unemployment and the potential for social and political unrest make this a timely study

Family Men Laura King, 2015-01-15 Fathers are often neglected in histories of family life in Britain Family Men provides the first academic study of fathers and families in the period from the First World War to the end of the 1950s It takes a thematic approach examining different aspects of fatherhood from the duties it encompassed to the ways in which it related to men s identities The historical approach is socio cultural each chapter examines a wide range of historical source materials in order to analyse both cultural representations of fatherhood and related social norms as well as exploring the practices and experiences of individuals and families It uncovers the debates surrounding parenting and family life and tells the stories of men and their children While many historians have examined men s relationship to the home and family in histories of gender family life domestic spaces and class cultures more generally few have specifically examined fathers as crucial family members as historical actors and as emotional individuals The history of fatherhood is extremely significant to contemporary debate assumptions about fatherhood in the past are constantly used to support arguments about the state of fatherhood today and the need for change or otherwise in the future Laura King charts men s changing experiences of fatherhood suggesting that although the roles and responsibilities fulfilled by men did not shift rapidly their relationships position in the family and identities underwent significant change between the start of the First World War and the 1960s

The Disruption of Evangelicalism Geoffrey Treloar, 2016-12-15 The Disruption of Evangelicalism is the first comprehensive account of the evangelical tradition across the English speaking world from the end of the nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It offers fresh perspectives on conversionism and the life of faith biblical and theological perspectives social engagement and mission Tracing these trajectories through a period of great turbulence in world history we see the deepening of an evangelical diversity And as events unfold we notice the spectrum of evangelicalism fragments in varied and often competing strands Dividing the era into two phases before 1914 and after 1918 draws out the impact of the Great War of 1914 18 as evangelicals renegotiated their identity in the modern world By accenting his account with the careers of selected key figures Geoffrey Treloar illustrates the very different responses of evangelicals to the demands of a critical and transitional period The Disruption of Evangelicalism sets out a case that deserves the attention of both professional and arm chair historians Modern British Literature Ruth Zabriskie Temple, Martin Tucker, 1966 Vol 4 supplement compiled and edited by Martin Tucker and Rita Stein The University at War, 1914-25 T. Irish, 2015-04-24 Drawing on examples from Britain France and the United States this book examines how scholars and scholarship found themselves mobilized to solve many problems created by modern warfare in World War I and the many consequences of this for higher education which have lasted almost a century Empires of Antiquities Billie Melman, 2020-03-31 Empires of Antiquities is a history of the rediscovery of civilizations of the ancient Near East in the imperial order that evolved between the outbreak of the First World War and the 1950s It explores the ways in which Near Eastern antiquity was redefined and experienced becoming the subject of new regulation new modes of knowledge and international and local politics A series of globally publicized spectacular archaeological discoveries in Iraq Egypt and Palestine which the book follows made antiquity visible palpable and accessible as never before The new uses of antiquity and its relations to modernity were inseparable from the emergence of the post war world order imperial collaboration and collisions and national aspirations Empires of Antiquities uniquely combines a history of the internationalization of a new regime of archaeology under the oversight of the League of Nations and its web of institutions a history of British passions for Near Eastern antiquity on the ground colonial mechanisms and nationalist claims on the past It points to the centrality of the mandate system particularly mandates classified A in Mesopotamia Iraq Palestine and Transjordan formerly governed by the Ottoman Empire and of Egypt in a new culture of antiquity Drawing on an unusually wide range of archives in several countries as well as on visual and material evidence the book weaves together imperial international and local histories of institutions people ideas and objects and offers an entirely new interpretation of the history of archaeological discovery and its connections to empires and modernity British Economic and Social History R. C. Richardson, William Henry Chaloner, 1996 Law and Imperialism Preeti Nijhar, 2015-09-30 Laws that were imposed by colonizers were as much an attempt to confirm their own identity as to control the more dangerous elements of a potentially unruly populace This title uses material from both British Parliamentary Papers and colonial archive material to provide evidence of legal change and response The Writers Directory , 2013 Modern Britain Thomas Kingston Derry, Thomas Leckie Jarman, 1979 Cumulative Book Index , 1998 A world list of books in the English language The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 The Birth of Modern Britain 1780-1914 Eric J.
