Bitter Winds:

Eidola Frederic Manning, 2022-09-16 Frederic Manning's Eidola is a richly woven tapestry of existential exploration and philosophical inquiry set against the backdrop of early 20th century Europe. The narrative, characterized by its stream of consciousness style and vivid imagery, delves into the complexities of identity and the human condition as the characters navigate their fragmented realities. Manning's potent symbolism and lyrical prose invite readers to reflect on the illusions that shape our perceptions, making it a profound literary piece reflective of modernist themes prevalent during the time of its publication. Frederic Manning, an Australian-born poet and novelist, drew deeply from his extensive experiences as an expatriate in Europe, where he was intimately acquainted with the intellectual currents of the early 1900s. His time in England and France, coupled with his interactions with notable literary figures, profoundly influenced his writing style and thematic focus. Eidola is a culmination of Manning's explorations of personal and collective identities, shaped by his own struggles and philosophical contemplations in a world on the brink of upheaval. For readers seeking a thought-provoking journey through the intricacies of being and perception, Eidola is an essential read. Manning's ability to blend stylistic innovation with philosophical depth makes this work a compelling addition to modernist literature, appealing to those interested in the intersections of art, identity, and the human psyche.
