Black And Reformed:

On Being Black and Reformed Anthony J. Carter, 2003 How Can an African American consciousness and Reformed theology benefit each other Where was God in the Atlantic Slave Trade How does Christianity triumph among people historically oppressed in part by the church itself Anthony Carter brings positive informed responses to such questions thereby enriching our understanding and furthering racial reconciliation Book jacket Black & Reformed Anthony J. Carter, 2016 Carter shows how Reformed theology best speaks to African American experience and demonstrates how black experiences and traditions can and should deeply enrich our theology no matter our heritage Black and Reformed Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2015-07-14 These essays represent a forceful relentless engagement with the political social economic and theological pillars upon which South African apartheid rested In the renewed struggles against global apartheid Boesak's writings in their theological grounding and with their social and political challenge come across as alive relevant and powerful as they were in the struggle against South African apartheid offering valuable insights and lessons for ongoing justice struggles today Black & Reformed Anthony J. Carter, 2016 This typeset edition of On being black and reformed adds a foreword by Thabiti Anyabwile an interview with the author and discussion questions for each chapter Back cover

Experiencing the Truth Anthony J. Carter, 2008-06-09 Experiencing the Truth communicates the need of a vibrant experiential Reformed Christianity among African Americans and all believers How does a believer choose a church to attend Sadly too many Christians search for churches that serve them and meet their perceived needs Instead they should prefer places where God is exalted and biblical truth and Christian doctrine are proclaimed Such churches are essential if Christians are to understand what God is doing and what he calls His people to be Experiencing the Truth presents these truths not simply to African American churches but also to the whole church today Anthony Carter Michael Leach and Ken Jones clearly present the need for a vibrant experiential Reformed Christianity among African Americans These authors lay out the biblical basis for choosing and attending a church and they demonstrate how the historic Reformed expression has been the most biblically accurate and experientially consistent expression of Christianity Black and Reformed Allan Boesak, 2000 Sober, Strict, and Scriptural Johan De Niet, Hermann Paul, Bart Wallet, 2009 Calvinism's influence and reputation have received ample scholarly attention But how John Calvin himself his person character and deeds was remembered commemorated and memorialized is a question few historians have addressed Focussing on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries this volume aims to open up the subject with chapters on Calvin's monumentalization in statues and museums his appearance in novels children's books and travel writing his iconic function for Hungarian nationalists and Presbyterian missionaries to China his reputation among Mormons and freethinkers and his rivalry with Michael Servetus in French Protestant memory The result is a fresh contribution to the field of religious memory studies and an invitation to further comparative research Contributors include R Bryan Bademan Patrick Cabanel R Scott Clark Thomas J Davis Stephen

S Francis Joe B Fulton Botond Ga l Stefan Laube Johan de Niet Herman Paul James Rigney Mich le Sacquin Jonathan Seitz Robert Vosloo Bart Wallet and Valentine Zuber      Homo Florens? Nadia Marais,2023-10-09 What does it mean to flourish Human flourishing lies at the heart of the good news of the gospel and yet contemporary theologies know not only one way of speaking about what it means to flourish If we embed our theological grammars of flourishing in the doctrine of salvation as the doctrine in which theological flourishing talk is arguably rooted and from which rich fruit may be borne there is not one but various ways in which to speak about what it means to flourish Yet what governs our speaking Why do we speak of flourishing as we do The various conceptions of human flourishing that are outlined in this book piety joy and comfort being fully alive healing and dignity grace happiness and blessing represent a collection of attempts not only to imagine human flourishing but also to imagine ways of speaking about human flourishing Perhaps what theology could offer to the vibrant and robust conversations on human flourishing lies exactly in the reminder to take care about how we speak about that which is truly and deeply human our longing to flourish      Black and Reformed Alliance of Black Reformed Christians in Southern Africa,Allan Boesak,1981      Creation and Salvation: Dialogue on Abraham Kuyper's Legacy for Contemporary Ecotheology Ernst Marais Conradie,2011-03-21 This volume explores the legacy of the Dutch theologian and statesman Abraham Kuyper for contemporary Christian ecotheology A crucial problem in ecotheology is how to do justice to both creation and salvation as acts of God given the impact of the environmental crisis and the concern for creation as creatura Can Kuyper help one in this regard given his controversial legacy especially in South Africa The volume explores Kuyper s notions of revelation common grace and re creation on this basis It is structured as an inter continental dialogue with a set of essays by Ernst Conradie responses from Clifford Anderson Vincent Bacote Hans Engdahl Dirk van Keulen Cornelis van der Kooi Benjamin Myers Leslie van Rooi and G nter Thomas and a rejoinder      One Gospel - Many Cultures ,2021-08-04 The gospel is directed to people in the concreteness of their lives For this reason the understanding of the gospel is always of a contextual nature i e is at all times related to the situations in which people live and is therefore influenced by various cultures The one gospel is understood in and shaped by many cultures In One Gospel Many Cultures authors from various parts of the world describe examples of such contextual understandings of the gospel message The volume contains accounts of Jesus as rice in a Korean and as guru in a South Indian setting churches in secular and individualistic societies on both sides of the Atlantic struggling to understand the gospel anew Christians in East Asian megalopolises trying to inculturate faith in their local cultures poverty stricken people in massive urban areas in Latin America who cannot read eating fragments of the Psalms women in African countries suffering poverty and threatened by the spread of diseases raising the question whether the churches should stick to monogamy or make room for polygamy These examples entail serious questions for the churches In what does the unity of the worldwide church consist and how strong is its witness if various contexts yield different interpretations of the gospel Is cross cultural understanding in the church possible Is the

World's Day of Women's Prayer perhaps a better example of cross-cultural sharing and unity women listening to women from parts of the world other than their own praying together sharing songs and if needed money and thereby demonstrating one faith one gospel one God And to take another completely different case was apartheid not a cruel form of contextualization a parody of the gospel of liberation a negation of the gospel that calls for and makes possible the breaking down of existing walls of separation between people of different races colours nations and genders The contributors to the work in hand do not merely present case studies of attempts to bring the gospel into rapport with diverse cultural and human situations but also discuss the pro's and con's of the examples of contextualization they describe The papers included in the present work are the fruit of a study project which forms part of the larger long-standing and ongoing program of theological reflection undertaken by the World Alliance of Reformed Churches With its fascinating cases studies and thorough discussions of the problems and issues involved in contextualization this volume will be recognized as an important textbook for academic courses in intercultural theology ecumenical studies and theological hermeneutics Contributors Marcella Althaus Reid Russell Botman Heup Young Kim Christine Lienemann Perrin Mercy Amba Oduyoye Joseph Small M Thomas Thangaraj Hendrik M Vroom and Choo Lak Yeow

Beyond Christian Hip Hop Erika D. Gault, Travis Harris, 2019-11-18 Christians and Christianity have been central to Hip Hop since its inception This book explores the intersection of Christians and Hip Hop and the multiple outcomes of this intersection It lays out the ways in which Christians and Hip Hop overlap and diverge The intersection of Christians and Hip Hop brings together African diasporic cultures lives memories and worldviews Moving beyond the focus on rappers and so-called Christian Hip Hop each chapter explores three major themes of the book identifying Hip Hop irreconcilable Christianity and boundaries There is a self-identified Christian Hip Hop CHH community that has received some scholarly attention At the same time scholars have analyzed Christianity and Hip Hop without focusing on the self-identified community This book brings these various conversations together and show through these three themes the complexities of the intersection of Christians and Hip Hop Hip Hop is more than rap music it is an African diasporic phenomenon These three themes elucidate the many characteristics of the intersection between Christians and Hip Hop and our reasoning for going beyond Christian Hip Hop This collection is a multi-faceted view of how religious belief plays a role in Hip Hoppas lives and community It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of Religion and Hip Hop Hip Hop African Diasporas Religion and the Arts Religion and Race and Black Theology as well as Religious Studies more generally
