From Whence They Came: Origins of the Missionary Baptists in Southwest Georgia, 1865-1900 Warren C. Hope, 2012-08-02 The spiritual realm has been the resort of countless Blacks during their sojourn in America Black Missionary Baptists history blossomed in Reconstruction and matured in Jim Crow Southern society However research on Black Baptists at the regional and local levels has been largely neglected In obscurity are pioneers who blazed a trail of faith in God and set in motion what Carter G Woodson and others have called the Negro Church What began many years ago as their religious experience lives on today but the stories of their time have not been told Because religion has been a significant influence on Black people it is important to reconstruct and preserve local and regional religious history Knowledge of the past is vital to understanding the present William Montgomery Under Their Own Vine And Fig Tree The African American Church in the South 1865 1900 asserted that this time frame deserved more scholarly attention Southwest Georgia is fertile ground for Black religious history Not since W E B Du Bois The Black Church has there been a focus on Blacks and religion in the region This book resurrects from invisibility's custody Blacks embrace of Christianity in local and regional settings Its contents explore denomination identity formation and religion as a means of uplift and advancement in the microcosm of Southwest Georgia Through it all Black Baptist ministers were pivotal actors in the religious drama Although myths and stereotypes about Black ministers of the past abound they nevertheless led the way down freedom road This book tells of Black preachers of the past their efforts to uplift and advance the race and reveals the depth of their creativity that was repeatedly demonstrated in the founding of local churches and associations that are vibrant today Heralding South Africa's Redemption Eric Michael Washington, 2010 "White" Americans in "Black" Africa Eunjin Park, 2001 This compelling book brings to light a disillusioned experiment of biracial missionary labours that were expected to carry the beliefs and cultural values of nineteenth century white Americans to the black continent of Africa Encyclopedia of African American Religions Larry G. Murphy, J. Gordon Melton, Gary L. Ward, 2013-11-20 Preceded by three introductory essays and a chronology of major events in black religious history from 1618 to 1991 this A Z encyclopedia includes three types of entries Biographical sketches of 773 African American religious leaders 341 entries on African American denominations and religious organizations including white churches with significant black memberships and educational institutions Topical articles on important aspects of African American religious life e g African American Christians during the Colonial Era Music in the African American Church The Black Church in the African American Experience C. Eric Lincoln, Lawrence H. Mamiya, 1990-11-07 A nongovernmental survey of urban and rural churches of black communities based on a ten year study The Old South's Modern Worlds L. Diane Barnes, Brian Schoen, Frank Towers, 2011-04-06 The Old South has traditionally been portrayed as an insular and backward looking society The Old South's Modern Worlds looks beyond this myth to identify some of the many ways that antebellum southerners were enmeshed in the modernizing trends of their time The essays gathered in this volume not only tell unexpected narratives of the Old South they also explore the compatibility of slavery the defining feature of antebellum southern life with cultural and material markers of modernity such as moral reform cities and industry Considered as proponents of American manifest destiny for example antebellum southern politicians look more like nationalists and less like separatists Though situated within distinct communities Southerners white black and red participated in and responded to movements global in scope and transformative in effect The turmoil that changes in Asian and European agriculture wrought among southern staple producers shows the interconnections between seemingly isolated southern farms and markets in distant lands Deprovincializing the antebellum South The Old South s Modern Worlds illuminates a diverse region both shaped by and contributing to the complex transformations of the nineteenth century world African-American Religion ,1992

Profiles of African-American Missionaries Robert J. Stevens, Brian Johnson, 2012-06-26 Profiles of African American Missionaries features the lives and ministries of the great African Americans who have gone to the world with the message of Christ It is a collection of stories sharing the ministries of several African American missionary pioneers from the 1700s to the present dealing with all the social and ministry issues that they had to face here and abroad Readers will be inspired by the dedication and commitment of these great African Americans as they lived out God s great commission to go into all the world and make disciples of all people It will inspire and challenge all readers to greater personal involvement in God s worldwide mission

Frustrated Fellowship James Melvin Washington, 1986 As James Melvin Washington demonstrates in this pathmaking study the black Baptist struggle for religious freedom was also a quest for identity and community From the beginning the black Baptists battled the perverse trusteeship of the slave regime At every stage their striving was complicated by their relationships with white Baptists Biracial congregations formed in the enthusiasm of mission efforts among the slaves dissolved as Christian doubt and rationalization about slavery increased White Baptists divided along sectional lines and fought bitterly about missions among slaves and later among freed blacks Even the most sympathetic white Baptists saw blacks as part of that heathen element that was supposed to be saved and civilized it was difficult to see how blacks could save themselves
