head of virtually every noncitizen in the United States In the complexities and inconsistencies of immigration law one can find a reason to deport almost any noncitizen at almost any time In recent years the system has been used with unprecedented vigor against millions of deportees We are a nation of immigrants but which ones do we want and what do we do with those that we don't These questions have troubled American law and politics since colonial times Deportation Nation is a chilling history of communal self idealization and self protection The post Revolutionary Alien and Sedition Laws the Fugitive Slave laws the Indian removals the Chinese Exclusion Act the Palmer Raids the internment of the Japanese Americans all sought to remove those whose origins suggested they could never become true Americans And for more than a century millions of Mexicans have conveniently served as cheap labor crossing a border that was not official until the early twentieth century and being sent back across it when they became a burden By illuminating the shadowy corners of American history Daniel Kanstroom shows that deportation has long been a legal tool to control immigrants lives and is used with increasing crudeness in a globalized but xenophobic world Mining American ,1904 Mines and Methods ,1907 Arizona Ghost Towns and Mining Camps Philip Varney,1994 A guide to ghost towns and abandoned mining camps in Arizona includes historical photographs a color portfolio regional maps descriptions and directions to each site Reports of the Governors of Arizona, Dakota, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, and Washington Arizona.
