Janet G. Husband, Jonathan F. Husband

Bitter Recoil:

Fields of Victory Mrs. Humphry Ward, 1919 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality. Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process. Though we have made best efforts, the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience. We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide.

Sequels Janet G. Husband, Jonathan F. Husband, 2009 A guide to series fiction lists popular series, identifies novels by character, and offers guidance on the order in which to read unnumbered series.

Genreflecting Diana Tixier Herald, Samuel Stavole-Carter, 2019-05-24 Librarians who work with readers will find this well-loved guide to be a treasure trove of information. With descriptive annotations of thousands of genre titles mapped by genre and subgenre, this is the reader's advisor's go-to reference. Next to author, genre is the characteristic that readers use most to select reading material, and the most trustworthy consideration for finding books readers will enjoy. With its detailed classification and pithy descriptions of titles, this book gives users valuable insights into what makes genre fiction appeal to readers. It is an invaluable aid for helping readers find books that they will enjoy reading. Providing a handy roadmap to popular genre literature, this guide helps librarians answer the perennial and often confounding question: "What can I read next?" Herald and Stavole-Carter briefly describe thousands of popular fiction titles, classifying them into standard genres such as science fiction, fantasy, romance, historical fiction, and mystery. Within each genre, titles are broken down into more specific subgenres and themes. Detailed author, title, and subject indexes provide further access. As in previous editions, the focus of the guide is on recent releases and perennial reader favorites. In addition to covering new titles, this edition focuses more narrowly on the core genres and includes basic readers advisory principles and techniques.

Writing the Woman Artist Suzanne W. Jones, 2016-11-11 I mean what is a woman? I assure you I do not know. I do not believe that you know. I do not believe that anybody can know until she has expressed herself in all the arts and professions open to human skill.

Virginia Woolf, Professions for Women

Writing the Woman Artist is a collection of essays that explores the ways in which women writers portray women painters, sculptors, writers, and performers. Surveying the works of a variety of women writers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from different ethnic, national, racial, and economic backgrounds, this book treats their revisions of the Kierkegaardian and their perceptions of the relationships between muse, artist, and audience in other genres. Suzanne W. Jones and her collaborators seek to understand how representations of women artists and their poetics and politics are mediated by social and historical factors, including literary movements and theories of language. In doing so, they make an important contribution to the field of feminist scholarship and generate new ways of understanding how the dynamics of creativity intersect with the dynamics of gender Contributors to the volume are Ann Ardis Alison Booth Kathleen Brogan Lynda Bundtzen Pamela Caughie Mary DeShazer Linda Dittmar Josephine Donovan Susan Stanford Friedman Gayle Greene Linda Hunt Katherine Kearns Holly Laird Estella Lauter Z Nelly Martinez Jane Atteridge Rose Margaret Diane Stetz Renate Voris and Mara Witzling Writing The Woman Artist is a valuable new resource for scholars and students working in the fields of European and American literature and women s studies
