Official Catalog, 1921 Directory of Brokers and Salesmen California. State Real Estate Division, 1920 Black Cop Richard Lewis, 1996. The true story of how Richie Lewis, a boy from the housing projects of New York City, went on to become Detective Richard Lewis, the most highly decorated police officer in the history of New York City. Richard speaks out against the racism that still exists in America within police departments. He relates how he and other black police officers were repeatedly denied promotions and were even treated like criminals themselves by some white cops.

Soul of a Black Cop Brian Willingham, 2004. Pulitzer Prize winning author Leon Litwack calls Brian Willingham's Soul of a Black Cop "A scream from the bottom, a compelling and often unnerving documentary portrait of an urban war zone, the day to day experiences of America's interior exiles." The author is a black city cop in the Flint, Michigan, of Michael Moore fame. His beat is the ghetto where a decaying city has imprisoned its downtrodden. There's no where else to go, and Willingham illustrates this through story after heartwrenching story and his profound comprehension of the human condition. It is a story of eight months in hell. Some say racism doesn't exist, others blame the suffering. A must read book for all those in any type of social work, indeed a book for all America.
