Baerwald* Daniel Norman Jacobs, Hans H.. Baerwald, 1963 The Formation of the Chinese Communist Party Yoshihiro Ishikawa, 2012-11-13 Official Chinese narratives recounting the rise of the Chinese Communist Party CCP tend to minimize the movement's international associations Conducting careful readings and translations of recently released documents in Russian Japanese and Chinese Ishikawa Yoshihiro builds a portrait of the party's multifaceted character revealing the provocative influences that shaped the movement and the ideologies of its competitors Making use of public and private documents and research Ishikawa begins the story in 1919 with Chinese intellectuals who wrote extensively under pen names and in fact plagiarized or translated many iconic texts of early Chinese Marxism Chinese Marxists initially drew intellectual sustenance from their Japanese counterparts until Japan clamped down on leftist activities The Chinese then turned to American and British sources Ishikawa traces these networks through an exhaustive survey of journals newspapers and other intellectual and popular publications He reports on numerous early meetings involving a range of groups only some of which were later funneled into CCP membership and he follows the developments at Soviet Russian gatherings attended by a number of Chinese representatives who claimed to speak for a nascent CCP Concluding his narrative in 1922 one year after the party's official founding Ishikawa clarifies a traditionally opaque period in Chinese history and sheds new light on the subsequent behavior and attitude of the party Communist China: a Strategic Survey Army Library (U.S.), 1966 The Chinese Communist Party Jérôme Doyon, Chloé Froissart, 2024-01-25 This volume brings together an international team of prominent scholars from a range of disciplines with the aim of investigating the many facets of the Chinese Communist Party's 100 year trajectory It combines a level of historical depth mostly found in single authored monographs with the thematic and disciplinary breadth of an edited volume This work stands out for its long term and multiscale approach offering complex and nuanced insights eschewing any Party grand narrative and unravelling underlying trends and logics composed of adaption but also contradictions resistance and sometimes setbacks that may be overlooked when focusing on the short term Rather than putting forward an overall argument about the nature of the Party the many perspectives presented in this volume highlight the complex internal dynamics of the Party the diversity of its roles in relation to the state as well as in its interaction with society beyond the state Our historical approach stresses impermanence beyond the apparent permanence of the Party's organisation and ideology while also bringing to light the recycling of past practices and strategies Looking at the Party's evolution over time shows how its founding structures and objectives have had a long lasting impact as well as how they have been tweaked and rearranged to adapt to the new economic and social environment the Party contributed to creating Documents of the Chinese Communist Party, 1927-1930, 1971 The Writings: v. 2: January 1956-December 1957 Zedong Mao, M.Y.M. Kau, Laifong Leung, 2019-07-23 This collection of the correspondence of Mao Zedong during the period 1956 to 1957 explores the question of legitimatizing the leadership of the CCP the pace of the socialist transformation of China's economy and the issue of the divergence of ideological opinion over the strategy of revolution The Modern Chinese Cultural System Fu Caiwu, 2026-01-22 This book examines China's cultural system from 1911 to 1949 by exploring its formation evolution and the underlying causes of the remarkable changes in modern Chinese culture During the first half of the 20th century China experienced a fundamental shift from a traditional society to a modern state This book provides an insightful analysis of the relationship between cultural leadership ideological models and state building It maps the modern Chinese cultural landscape identifying key contradictions within the period's cultural system and explaining how these contradictions shaped historical change's direction goals and paths This book details the organizational evolution of cultural management institutions in modern China tracing their development from their origins to more advanced structures This book will appeal to scholars and students interested in modern Chinese history and culture Chinese Communist Education Stewart E. Edited and translated by Hyobom Pak*, 1971 Select Documents on International Affairs Australia, 1950 Recast All Under Heaven Xiaoyuan Liu, 2010-08-12 Xiaoyuan Liu has provided a most compelling study of frontier in the shaping of modern China's territorial identity Ethnopolitics usually confined to the domestic sphere must now be recast and brought to the forefront of any attempt to understand China's international relations and vice versa Uradyn E. Bulag University of Cambridge UK In this collection of well argued essays Professor Xiaoyuan Liu offers an extremely valuable perspective on the evolution of China's geo body in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that is its evolution from an empire to a modern nation state This complex process involved a constant effort to reconcile the unifying impulses of the central government with the vibrant ethnic particularism that existed within China's constantly shifting borders Richard J. Smith George and Nancy Rupp Professor of Humanities and Professor of History Rice University USA In this illuminating set of essays Liu Xiaoyuan the master of China's frontier history and ethnopolitics ranges widely across the boundaries of space and time to examine how modern China came into being By emphasizing the seemingly paradoxical centrality of the periphery in the consolidation and legitimation of Chinese political authority Liu explains Beijing's concern about trouble on its Inner Asian frontiers and expands our understanding of China's modern history Steven I Levine Senior Research Associate Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center University of Montana USA In applying the two interpretative themes of frontier and ethnicity Recast All Under Heaven examines the externalization from and internalization to China by a number of the tributary affiliates and outlying territories of the by gone Qing Empire This unique book blends analyses of domestic and international developments involved in China s modern reincarnation and provides an integral narrative that links historical themes pertinent to the eastern and western halves of China This is the first study contending that frontier China has remained a fitting characterization of the rising Asian giant Classified Chinese Communist Documents Taiwan) Cheng Chih ta hsueh (Mu-cha,1978 Administration and Supervision Series.
