The Chinese Laundryman Paul C.P. Siu, 1987 The definitive scholarly study of Chinese laundries and those who worked in them in the U S Considered a classic piece by students of overseas Chinese and Asian American studies The Chinese Laundryman is also a landmark in the study of ethnic occupations and in the social and cultural history of the immigrant in America Lightning Print On Demand Title The Chinese Laundryman Paul Chan Pang Siu, 1987 Chinese hand laundries have been a fixture of America s urban landscape for over one hundred years Yet little is publicly known about the workings of this familiar institution which originated shortly after Chinese immigrants had started to arrive in some numbers in California in the 1850s At that time the Chinese worked in a wide range of occupations hand laundries being one of them But with the faltering of the Western economy and as European immigration to the United States mounted the tide of anti Chinese sentiment swelled which culminated in violent evictions of the Chinese from West Coast cities and in the imposition of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 The laundry became one of the few occupations in which Chinese were able to continue to work This book is the definitive scholarly study of Chinese laundries and of those who worked in them in the United States Siu s work researched in the 1930s was completed as a dissertation in 1953 at the University of Chicago s School of Sociology It is an intimate insider s look at the life and work of Chinese hand laundry workers in Chicago and is one of the most insightful participant observation studies of this kind Dr Siu himself the son of a laundryman introduces in it the key sociological concept of the sojourner and explores the whole nature of immigrant economies Considered a classic work by students of overseas Chinese and Asian American studies The Chinese Laundryman is also a landmark in the study of ethnic occupations and in the social and cultural history of the immigrant in America Vividly descriptive and highly readable the book will appeal to anyone interested in the ethnic and the urban experience in America The Chinese Laundryman: a Study of Social Isolation Paul Chan Pang Siu, 1953 Chinese American Mothering Andrea Louie, 2025-12-16 A journey from Chinese immigrant to U S Mother of the Year unpacks the roots of the model minority myth and its legacy In 1952 Toy Len Goon a Chinese immigrant widow who raised eight children while running their family laundry was selected as U S Mother of the Year by the American Mother s Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation In Chinese American Mothering Andrea Louie argues that Toy Len Goon s selection for this honor was more than an acknowledgement of her having raised eight successful children while running a business rather she was chosen precisely because she was a Chinese American woman who could exemplify both the virtues of mothering and of American upward mobility Her selection for the Mother of the Year honor can only be understood within the context of shifting representations of Chinese Americans during the Cold War era and the accompanying assumptions about the strategic role that positive representations of Chinese Americans could have in extending U S influence in Asia Drawing upon immigration records interviews and secondary sources as well as her positionality as Toy Len Goon s granddaughter Louie tells an expanded version of Toy Len Goon s life story Ultimately
