Ray Simmons, 2017-04-18 This is the story of a magical night in which a group of Chinese English Students tell their beloved Teacher the Four Greatest Chinese Folktales plus one more which is the Chinese version of Cinderella. The stories are great indeed, and the students tell them very well. These stories are a must for anyone interested in or planning to visit China. This book is a wonderful example of the kind of bond you can build with students when you teach English as a Foreign Language. There are pictures of real students and the teacher who was honored to help them master English. There is some tragedy involved because two of the best students died tragically and unnecessarily much too soon. This book is dedicated to them and proceeds from the sales will help their families.
