The Chinese Revolution, 1900-1950 Ranbir Vohra, 1974 Origins of the Chinese Revolution, 1915-1949 Lucien Bianco, 1971 Analyzes the internal pressures and social crises that fostered the beginnings of the Chinese Revolution

Revolution and Counterrevolution in China Lin Chun, 2021-09-28 A history of revolutionary China in the 20th century China under XI Jinping has been experiencing unprecedented change From the Belt and Road initiative to its involvement in Great Power struggles with the West China is facing the world once more in the hope of reclaiming a lost Chinese greatness But is Socialism with Chinese Characteristics just neoliberal capitalism under another name And if so how can China reclaim the heritage of the Revolution in this its 70th anniversary In this panoramic study of Chinese history in the twentieth century Lin Chun argues that the paradoxes of contemporary Chinese society do not merely echo the tensions of modernity or capitalist development Instead they are a product of both the contradictions rooted in its revolutionary history and the social and political consequences of its post socialist transition Revolution and Counterrevolution in China charts China s epic revolutionary trajectory in search of a socialist alternative to the global system and asks whether market reform must repudiate and overturn the revolution and its legacy

The Chinese Revolution Paul J. Byrne, 2007 Presents an account of the Chinese Civil War and what the communist victory meant to Chinese society and the Chinese people

The Kuomintang and the Future of the Chinese Revolution Thomas Tze Chung Woo, 1975

The Chinese Revolution in the 1920s Roland Felber, A.M. Grigoriev, Mechthild Leutner, M.L. Titarenko, 2013-10-11 Based mainly on Russian and Chinese archival sources that have become available only since the early 1990s the authors of this collection explore the main aspects of the Chinese Revolution in the crucial period of the 1920s such as the United Front policy the development of communism the Guomindang perspective institutional issues and social movements The various approaches and interpretative methods employed by the contributors from seven countries have resulted in a collection of articles representing four very different and until now almost independent discourses the European the American the Chinese and the Russian The Chinese Revolution, 1926-27 Herbert Owen Chapman,1928 The Spirit of the Chinese Revolution Arthur Norman Holcombe,1930 The Tragedy of the Chinese Revolution Harold Isaacs,2010-05-01 The story of how China s modern development rests on the tragically suppressed struggle for true socialism

Chinese Revolution in Practice Guo Wu,2023-10-24 This book employs multiple case studies to explore how the Chinese communist revolution began as an ideology oriented intellectual movement aimed at improving society before China s transformation into a state that suppresses dissenting voices by outsourcing its power of coercion and incarceration The author examines the movement s methods of early self organization grass roots level engagement creation of new modes of expression and popular art forms manipulation of collective memory and invention of innovative ways of mass incarceration Covering developments from 1920 to 1970 the book considers a wide range of Chinese individuals and groups from early Marxists to political prisoners in the PRC to illustrate a dynamic interactive process in which the state and individuals contend with each other It argues that revolutionary practices in modern China have created a regime that can be conceptualized as an ideology military propaganda state that prompts further reflection on the relationships between revolution and the state the state and collective articulation and memory and the state and reflective individuals in a global context Illustrating the continuity of the Chinese revolution and past decades socialist practices and mechanisms this study is an ideal resource for scholars of Chinese history politics and twentieth century revolutions A Revelation of the Chinese Revolution John James Mullaney,1914 Anarchism in the Chinese Revolution Arif Dirlik,2023-09-01 Arif Dirlik s latest offering is a revisionist perspective on Chinese radicalism in the twentieth century He argues that the history of anarchism is indispensable to understanding crucial themes in Chinese radicalism And anarchism is particularly significant now as a source of democratic ideals within the history of the socialist movement in China Dirlik draws on the most recent scholarship and on materials available only in the last decade to compile the first comprehensive history of his subject available in a Western language He emphasizes the anarchist contribution to revolutionary discourse and elucidates this theme through detailed analysis of both anarchist polemics and social practice The changing circumstances of the Chinese revolution provide the immediate context but throughout his writing the author views Chinese anarchism in relation to anarchism worldwide Arif Dirlik s latest offering is a revisionist perspective on Chinese radicalism in the twentieth century He argues that the history of anarchism is indispensable to understanding crucial themes in Chinese radicalism And anarchism is particularly significant Through the Chinese Revolution Fernand Farjanel,1915 The Chinese Revolution and Chinese Communism M. N. Sirohi, 2018-08-18 On October 1 1949 Chinese Communist leader Mao Zedong declared the creation of the People's Republic of China PRC The announcement ended the costly full scale civil war between the Chinese Communist Party CCP and the Nationalist Party or Kuomintang KMT which broke out immediately following World War II and had been preceded by on and off conflict between the two sides since the 1920's The creation of the PRC also completed the long process of governmental upheaval in China begun by the Chinese Revolution of 1911 The fall of mainland China to communism in 1949 led the United States to suspend diplomatic ties with the PRC for decades The Chinese Communist Party was founded in 1920 as embryonic proletarian political organizations were just coming into existence Leading figures of the May 4 movement made up the leadership but few workers were present at the first conference in 1921 One of the main questions before it was its relationship to the GMD The Chinese nation is known throughout the world not only for its industriousness and stamina but also for its ardent love of freedom and its rich revolutionary traditions The history of the Han people for instance demonstrates that the Chinese never submit to tyrannical rule but invariably use revolutionary means to overthrow or change it In the thousands of years of Han history there have been hundreds of peasant uprisings great and small against the dark rule of the landlords and the nobility And most dynastic changes came about as a result of such peasant uprisings All the nationalities of China have resisted foreign oppression and have invariably resorted to rebellion to shake it off They favour a union on the basis of equality but are against the oppression of one nationality by another During the thousands of years of recorded history the Chinese nation has given birth to many national heroes and revolutionary leaders Thus the Chinese nation has a glorious revolutionary tradition and a splendid historical heritage China is a communist country either means you are out of date misinformed or trying to maintain justification for your right to govern China by the continuation of a political and historical narrative As the book addresses this crucial issue quite deftly it is hoped that it would prove to be a source of great information for the reader The book deeply highlights the diplomacy of China and its strategies

The Chinese Revolution and Mao Zedong in World History Ann Malaspina, 2004 Mao Zedong leader of the Chinese Revolution rescued China from years of corrupt rule foreign domination and civil war Through Mao's tactics of guerilla warfare and peasant support China became a Communist nation in 1949 Mao unified China under a central government yet the legacy of his achievements and mistakes still lingers By isolating China for over two decades Mao let it lag behind the progress made in other countries In The Chinese Revolution and Mao Zedong in World History author Ann Malaspina relates the history of the Chinese Communist party and the People's Republic of China during the time of Mao Zedong Key events include the Great Leap Forward the Cultural Revolution and Mao's helping China emerge from isolation by reaching out to the United States Book jacket

Mao Zedong and the Chinese Revolution Ann Malaspina, 2015-12-15 Through first person accounts informational text and photos students will learn about Chairman Mao's theories military strategies and political policies known as Maoism which forever changed the culture of China and communication between the East and the West     Re-envisioning the Chinese Revolution Ching Kwan Lee,2007 A comprehensive study of contemporary memories of China s revolutionary epoch from the time of Japanese imperialism through the Cultural Revolution This volume examines the memories of a range of social groups including disenfranchised workers and rural women who have often been neglected in scholarship     The New Chinese Revolution Lynn Pan,1987     Mao Zedong and the Chinese Revolution Gregor Benton,2008 Comprehensively indexed and with an introduction newly written by the editor a leading expert in the field Mao Zedong and the Chinese Revolutionis sure to be recognized as a vital reference resource for all serious Mao scholars
