Custom, Kinship, and Gifts to Saints Stephen D. White, 2018-08-25 White combines an intensive study of medieval law with insights from anthropology religion and social history to create a picture of French society in the Middle Ages which is impressive in its breadth and illuminating in its detail By examining the practice whereby gifts of land were approved by the giver s relatives he suggests novel ways of looking at early medieval law kinship land tenure and gift exchange White shows that laudatio parentum can be properly analyzed only within a combined social legal and religious context Originally published in 1988 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered

The Medieval Society Romances Sarah Field Barrow, 1924 Three jungle animal friends with a love of trees have an unexpected Christmas happening The Serf, the Knight, and the Historian Dominique Barthélemy, 2009 Dominique Barthélemy presents a sharply revisionist account of the history of France around the year 1000 challenging the traditional view that France underwent a kind of revolution at the millennium which ushered in feudalism The Aristocracy in England and Tuscany, 1000-1250 Peter R. Coss, 2020 This volume examines the aristocracy in Tuscany and in England in the years 1000-1250 offering a new way of studying English aristocracy in this period by tracing Italian aristocratic history and then employing the same historiographic tools within English history Michel Foucault Philip Barker, 2020-07-24 This unique and original study analyzes Foucault's interaction with the history of ideas undertaking a genealogy of the subject that subverts conventional philosophical history to develop a distinctly Foucauldian intellectual history Through a detailed account of Foucault's work and its relation to the history of ideas Philip Barker shows how that history can be usefully reconceptualised using Foucault's concepts of genealogy and archaeology Locating the emergence of self reflexive consciousness in twelfth century philosophy and elaborating upon autobiography as a philosophical persona Barker argues that this extremely productive approach can be used to analyze the relationship between the history of philosophy psychoanalysis and the transparent subject Pornographic Archaeology Zrinka Stahuljak, 2012-10-08 In Pornographic Archaeology Medicine Medievalism and the Invention of the French Nation Zrinka Stahuljak explores the connections and fissures between the history of sexuality nineteenth century views of the Middle Ages and the conceptualization of modern France This cultural history uncovers the determinant role that the sexuality of the Middle Ages played in nineteenth century French identity Stahuljak's provocative study of sex blood race and love in nineteenth and early twentieth century medical and historical literature demonstrates how French medicine's obsession with the medieval past helped to define European sexuality race public health policy marriage family and the conceptualization of the Middle Ages Stahuljak reveals the connections between the medieval military order of the Templars and the 1830 colonization of Algeria between a fifteenth century French marshal and the development of Richard von Krafft Ebing's theory of sadism between courtly love and the 1884 law on divorce Although the developing discipline of medieval studies eventually rejected the influence of these medical philologists the convergence of medievalism and medicine shaped modern capitalist French society and established a vision of the Middle Ages that survives today Lordship in the County of Maine, C. 890-1160 Richard Ewing Barton, 2004 The vision and chronology of tenth and eleventh century lordship on offer here departs from the model of feudal mutation and emphasizes two major themes the centrality of intangible charismatic elements of honor prestige and acclamation and the lack of foundation for any notion of feudal transformation while acknowledging changes in the geography of power across the tenth and eleventh centuries the argument insists that the practicalities of the practice of lordship remained essentially
