Conceiving a Nation Mira Morgenstern, 2009-04-02 Current conflicts in both national and international arenas have undermined the natural organic concept of nationhood as conventionally espoused in the nineteenth century Conceiving a Nation argues that the modern understanding of the nation as a contested concept as the product of a fluid and ongoing process of negotiation open to a range of livable solutions is actually rooted in the Bible This book draws attention to the contribution that the Bible makes to political discourse about the nation The Bible is particularly well suited to this open ended discourse because of its own nature as a text whose ambiguity and laconic quality render it constantly open to new interpretations and applicable to changing circumstances The Bible offers a pluralistic understanding of different models of political development for different nations and it depicts altering concepts of national identity over time In this book Morgenstern reads the Bible as the source of a dynamic critique of the ideas that are conventionally considered to be fundamental to national identity treating in successive chapters the ethnic Ruth the cultural Samson the political Jotham and the territorial Esther Throughout she explores a number of common themes such as the relationship of women to political authority and the strangeness of Israelite political existence In the Conclusion she elucidates how biblical analysis can aid in recognition of modern claims to nationhood

EdD,2021-05-11 As we strive for good through our fear and sense of lack we inadvertently give power to a coalition that infuses cultures in a philosophy of eternal conflict and domination as a means of preserving civic order that is controlled by promises of greater good while guiding policies and actions protect and produces a world of haves and have nots The deeper impulse of the Soul to thrive and transform itself into loving is an eternal force and is unstoppable in the long run Though ominous these times embody a great opportunity for humanity to change the narrative To do so we need to rise above the inversion layer of shadows into transcendent realms and resources Prophecy portends a new day and new dawn We are that promise We live in a time that invites a vision for humanity and leadership based on integrity and spiritual awakening Remember As we incarnate into the human condition the most essential and most forgotten element of life for each of us is that we are the ones that bring love In our first breath we encounter an overwhelming challenge to identify with the world in which we find ourselves and forget the world of love from whence we came I invite you to engage in an exploration of Self that is continuous and reveals the truth of life without fear inspired by Soul and guided by love Consider perhaps that the promise of a new day and new dawn refers simply to a change of heart Transcendental Leadership occurs when we connect to our visionary nature awaken to an integral perspective and apply our greater virtue and spiritual depth in response to the challenges and callings of life
