president of a company from middle managers right down to front line supervisors what a leader models how they think speak and act influences the people they lead Leaders who think speak and act unkindly give legitimacy and permission to those they lead to think speak and act in exactly the same unkind ways Today in a world where a leaders words and actions travel quickly through social media channels such as Twitter their influence unkind or kind is amplified through repeated views and sharing In an increasingly fragmented polarized and divided world we need leaders who will bring people together not divide them Leaders who value and model cooperation and collaboration over competition And who model ways to think kindly speak kindly and act kindly We need kindness to become synonymous with good leadership So that when someone is asked to describe the traits of a good leader kindness will be the first word that comes to mind Essentially the purpose of this book is to teach leaders how to lead with kindness so they can influence the people they lead to create kinder workplaces organizations and the world Each chapter contains a mixture of theory case studies and reflections from leaders and the people they influence As well the book follows the fictional stories of Kay La Janson and Kevin Landrell as they become leaders in a failing organization that is ultimately turned around through kind leadership Between chapters there are a series of practical exercises based on concepts presented in the previous chapter with space to record outcomes and reflections on the practice process This book gives you a deep theoretical understanding of the importance of leading with kindness and also provides practical exercises for you to use to turn theory into practice Because change means doing things differently and because we only really learn by doing to create kinder organizations kinder communities and a kinder world leaders must be able to begin practicing kindness right away By the time you finish the book you will feel confident in your ability to lead with kindness and also to address organizational problems at work at home and in the community with kindness book GREEDY BUSINESS is a satire directed at human behaviour particularly in regards to human priorities to choose between acts of humanitarianism and greed The author notes that politics indeed is part and parcel of life but no where is it so vividly portrayed than in education and at the work place to satisfy human obsession with greed Then he admitted I cannot deny my role in that but that cannot justify it As individuals we allow Greed to Triumph Morality without humanitarian consideration for others in our efforts to improve quality of our life and that is inexcusable This book is therefore about that aspect of human thinking that can justify individuals doing things to others that they would not like others to do them I wonder how many of us find the necessity to take a step backward to explore the choices we have made to do the things we have done to others that we would not like to be done to us because if done to us they would likely destroy our quality of life Yet some how some of us can justify some of the things we do to others as the result of the choices we have made without humanitarian consideration for them in the name of improving quality of our lives at the expense of our victims Well I did take a step backward and my observations suggest that humans obsession with Greed confirms why we do the things to others that we would not like to be done to us Our tendency to want more and more at the expense of others without humanitarian consideration for the quality of life of others has blinded our moral responsibility to be fair The purpose of writing this book is therefore to share my observations and thoughts with others in the hope that they too may find the need to take a step backward and explore the choices made in the past to do certain things to others that they would not like others to do to them The New Merrill Speller Sterling Andrus Leonard,Edith A. Winship,1925 Advertise! Edith
