Chosen Place Timeless People Signed:

The Chosen Place, the Timeless People Paule Marshall, 1969 Fiction The chosen place is Bourneville a remote devastated part of a Caribbean island the timeless people are its inhabitants black poor inextricably linked to their past enslavement The advance team for an ambitious American research project arrives and the tense ambivalent relationships that evolve between natives and foreigners blacks and whites have and have not keenly dramatize the vicissitudes of power Black Subjects Arlene R. Keizer, 2004 Writers as diverse as Carolivia Herron Charles Johnson Paule Marshall Toni Morrison and Derek Walcott have addressed the history of slavery in their literary works In this groundbreaking new book Arlene R Keizer contends that these writers theorize the nature and formation of the black subject and engage established theories of subjectivity in their fiction and drama by using slave characters and the condition of slavery as focal points In this book Keizer examines theories derived from fictional works in light of more established theories of subject formation such as psychoanalysis Althusserian interpellation performance theory and theories about the formation of postmodern subjects under late capitalism Black Subjects shows how African American and Caribbean writers theories of identity formation which arise from the varieties of black experience re imagined in fiction force a reconsideration of the conceptual bases of established theories of subjectivity The striking connections Keizer draws between these two bodies of theory contribute significantly to African American and Caribbean Studies literary theory and critical race and ethnic studies Places of Silence, Journeys of Freedom Eugenia C. DeLamotte, 2016-11-11 Alice Walker has described the Barbadian American novelist Paule Marshall as unequalled in intelligence vision craft by anyone of her generation to put her contributions to our literature modestly Such praise has echoed through reviews and analyses of Marshall's work since the 1959 publication of Brown Girl Brownstones a novel followed by The Chosen Place the Timeless People 1969 Praisesong for the Widow 1984 and Daughters 1991 Places of Silence Journeys of Freedom is the first study of Paule Marshall's work to focus explicitly on her contribution to feminism It is also the first to identify one of her original contributions to narrative art a technique of superimposition or double exposure through which her books have explored topics now at the heart of feminist debate Centered around the subject of voice and silence these issues include the interrelation between women's power and powerlessness the interpenetration of the political and economic world with the world of the psyche and the mechanisms through which oppressions on the basis of race class and gender operate as mutually shaping forces Writing in Limbo Simon Gikandi, 2018-03-15 In Simon Gikandi's view Caribbean literature and postcolonial literature more generally negotiate an uneasy relationship with the concepts of modernism and modernity a relationship in which the Caribbean writer unable to escape a history encoded by Europe accepts the challenge of rewriting it Drawing on contemporary deconstructionist theory Gikandi looks at how such Caribbean writers as George Lamming Samuel Selvon Alejo Carpentier C L R James Paule Marshall Merle Hodge Zee Edgell and Michelle Cliff have attempted to confront European modernism AB Bookman's

Weekly ,1998 Bech Is Back John Updike,1998-08-25 In this follow up to Bech A Book Henry Bech the priapic peripatetic and unproductive Jewish American novelist returns with seven more chapters from his mock heroic life He turns fifty in a confusing blend of civic and erotic circumstances while publicizing himself in Australia and Canada He marries a shiksa and travels with her to Israel where she falls in love with the land and to Scotland where he does And sweating buckets thinking big minting miracles he writes an ingeniously tawdry bestseller Bech s aesthetic and moral embarrassments reveal acid truths about both his trade and our times The Glenn Carrington Collection Moorland-Spingarn Research Center,1977
