Christ And The Media:

Christ and the Media Malcolm Muggeridge, 2003 The media in general and TV in particular are incomparably the greatest single influence in our society This influence is in my opinion largely exerted irresponsibly arbitrarily and without reference to any moral or intellectual still less spiritual guidelines whatsoever Throughout his journalistic career Malcolm Muggeridge was a commentator On radio and television as a lecturer journalist and author he fascinated delighted provoked and sometimes infuriated his audiences Christ and the Media is a sharp witty critique of media oriented culture with such intriguing fantasies as the the Fourth Temptation in which Jesus is approached with the offer of a worldwide TV network Future historians wrote Muggeridge will surely see us as having created in the media a Frankenstein monster which no one knows how to control or direct and marvel that we should have so meekly subjected ourselves to its destructive and often malign influence Born in 1903 started his career as a university lecturer at the university in Cairo before taking up journalism As a journalist he worked around the world on the Guardian Calcutta Statesman the Evening Standard and the Daily Telegraph and then in 1953 became editor of Punch where he remained for four years In later years he became best known as a broadcaster both on television and radio for the BBC His other books include Jesus Rediscovered Jesus The Man Who Lives and A Third Testament He died in 1990

Competing Spectacles Tony Reinke, 2019 In a world of shiny attractions that grab our attention and demand our affections Competing Spectacles helps us to thrive spiritually by asking critical questions about where we place our focus

The New Media Frontier John Mark Reynolds, 2008 Experts survey the new media landscape and explore specific ways in which Christians can expand their ministry effectiveness and advance their worldview with discernment and grace

From Jesus to the Internet Peter Horsfield, 2015-03-16 From Jesus to the Internet examines Christianity as a mediated phenomenon paying particular attention to how various forms of media have influenced and developed the Christian tradition over the centuries It is the first systematic survey of this topic and the author provides those studying or interested in the intersection of religion and media with a lively and engaging chronological narrative With insights into some of Christianity's most hotly debated contemporary issues this book provides a much needed historical basis for this interdisciplinary field

The Spotlight & The Kingdom Olisa Nnadi, 2026-02-06 What does the Kingdom of God look like in public What happens when Christ is not only preached but expressed through human work In The Spotlight the Kingdom readers are invited into a compelling exploration of media entertainment and performance not as secular spaces to avoid but as sacred platforms designed by God to reveal truth shape culture and reflect His glory This book is Book 1 of the Thy Kingdom Come series The Kingdom of God Revealed Through Human Work Through Scripture biblical patterns and practical insight this book reveals The origin of media and visibility in God's design How Jesus Himself modeled public presence without compromise How media became distorted through power pride and control What it means for God's Kingdom to manifest in modern media spaces How believers can sustain faithfulness under visibility influence and spotlight This is not a book about escaping culture It is a book about governing within it Whether you are a content creator artist journalist performer producer or believer called into visible spaces The Spotlight the Kingdom will give you language clarity and conviction for your assignment This is not about fame This is about faithfulness made visible

Media in Church and Mission Viggo Sogaard, Viggo Sogaard, 1993 Summarizing the Dimensions of Christian Communication Too many today are borrowing uncritically from the world of secular marketing and seem to be blithely unaware that the gospel is not a consumer product to be sold persuasively to a waiting world There is a great temptation to be so focused on felt needs that the gospel ceases being the narrow way and becomes instead a broad way to human fulfillment Unless real caution is exercised masses are attracted and churches become filled with those to whom Christianity is only a veneer over an otherwise secular life Sogaard succeeds in driving home the sometimes forgotten point that strategies no matter how skillfully they are conceived are destined to failure unless it is fully recognized that the Holy Spirit is the ultimate persuader There is in short a mysterious interworking between strategies and the ministry of the Holy Spirit An imbalance on either side of this equation is untenable The majority of the chapters offer practical insights into how such media as audio cassettes radio film and television can if properly used play an important role in conversion and spiritual growth But the author never loses sight of the fact that the single most important medium is face to face communication in the context of the local Christian fellowship

Byers,2013-07-22 The church is unsure of itself in the twenty first century s media culture Some Christians denounce digital media while others embrace the latest gadgets and apps as soon as they appear Many of us are stumbling along amidst the tweets status updates podcasts and blog posts wondering if we have ventured into a realm beyond the scope of biblical wisdom Though there is such a thing as new media Andrew Byers reminds us that the actual concept of media is ancient theological and even biblical In fact there is such a thing as the media of God TheoMedia are means by which God communicates and reveals himself creation divine speech inspired writings the visual symbol of the cross and more Christians are actually called to media saturation But the media that are to most prominently saturate our lives are the media of God If God creates and uses media then Scripture provides a theological logic by which we can create and use media in the digital age This book is not an unqualified endorsement of the latest media products or a tirade against media technology Instead Byers calls us to rethink our understanding of media in terms of the media of God in the biblical story of redemption Reports National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States,National council of the Congregational churches of the United States,1898 Emmanuel's Land S.
