Theology in Context Dr. Dave Johnson, 2013-01-12 This book takes a close look at the culture of one of the lowland Filipino groups with a view toward developing contextual theology that is biblically accurate missiologically sound and culturally relevant throughout the Filipino lowlands Johnson delves deep seeking to understand the religious worldview assumptions that underpin and drive the various religious practices and the people who are involved in them Here are some of the issues covered All Saints Day and the dead returning to their gravesites Demon Possession Town Fiestas Sickness and Healing How people have been transformed by the power of God within their own cultural setting both in the past and present And much more Mission in the Spirit Julie C. Ma, Wonsuk Ma, 2010 Towards a Catholic theology in the African context Denis Mpanga, 2017 A Catholic Theology in a current African context remains a challenge for theologians How can authentic African elements contribute to a catholic theological discourse that can contribute to a re awakening of contextual theological reconstructions faithful to cultural contexts This work responds by bringing into the dialogue one of the renowned German theologians Karl Adam and showing his success in his contextual theological project but also evidencing his failures and thereby setting boundaries for contextual theological constructions Denis Mpanga is Catholic priest of the Archdiocese of Kampala Uganda working as Fidei Donum priest in Rottenburg Stuttgart Germany Dissertation Series Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Studies Kommunikative Theologie interdisziplinär Communicative Theology Interdisciplinary Studies Vol 19 Subject African Studies Catholic Studies Religious Studies Philippine Quarterly of Culture and Society, 1973 Faith and Politics Aldrin M. Peñamora, David S. Lim, 2025-12-19 Worship is often thought of as only what is done in a Sunday service While this is an important element Scripture teaches that worship encompasses how Christians express their convictions in all spheres of life including the political realm This collection of essays explores the relationship between pananampalataya at politika faith and politics that unfolds in the political context of the Philippines Written by experts in their fields this interdisciplinary book provides a biblical framework and profound theological insights for Christian socio political engagement in confronting the major issues of poverty alleviation social justice global warming and peacebuilding Divided in two parts the essays begin by exploring the need for politically engaged worship through the lens of church state and governance They go on to provide practical insights into contemporary issues challenges and prospects for evangelical political engagement From the Philippines to beyond these essays are the perfect companion for Christians around the world who seek to creatively develop their vision and mission for strategically engaging in the public sphere to make the world reflect Christ Leonardo N. Mercado's Views on Christology Arnel I. Haber, 2009 The research aimed at exploring Mercado's views on Christology in the Philippine context and its relation to priestly life ministry This theological investigation relied on the fact that priesthood has a very strong Christological foundation The main problem in this study was What is the significance of Mercado's views on Christology to priestly life and ministry in the Philippines The overall method of this research was inductive It also employed the descriptive method This study was purely library research Chapter II aimed at discovering the unique contributions of Mercado in Christology In Chapter III a general description of priestly life and ministry based from the documents of the Second Plenary Council of the Philippines PCP II and in the Updated Philippine Program for Priestly Formation UPPPF was presented Relying primarily on the data and information brought to the fore in Chapter II and Chapter III Chapter IV evaluated how Mercado's observations and reflections can be significant to priestly life and ministry in the Philippine context After applying some of Mercado's views on Christology which includes not only the content but also the approach he employed in his theological reflections to several aspects of priestly life and ministry in the Philippines the research proposed the appropriate or suitable model or models for priesthood today in the Philippines the kenotic Christ and the resurrected Christ these two images can be subsumed under the image of Jesus Christ as Total Redeemer The research stressed the importance of emphasizing the inseparability of kenotic Christ with the resurrected Christ in the Philippine context wherein the people seem to embrace only the humble and suffering Christ One cannot speak of the earthly historical crucified and kenotic Christ apart from the resurrected Christ because these titles refer to the one and the same Christ the total redeemer

Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2025-06-06 Winner of a Christianity Today Book Award Honored as one of the Fifteen Outstanding Books for Mission Studies by International Bulletin of Missionary Research From Cairo to Calcutta from Cochabamba to Columbus Christians are engaged in a conversation about how to speak and live the gospel in today's traditional modern and emergent cultures The technical term for their efforts is contextualization Missionary theorists have pondered and written on it at length More and more those who do theology in the West are also trying to discover new ways of communicating and embodying the gospel for an emerging postmodern culture But few have considered in depth how the early church contextualized the gospel And yet the New Testament provides numerous examples As both a crosscultural missionary and a New Testament scholar Dean Flemming is well equipped to examine how the early church contextualized the gospel and to draw out lessons for today By carefully sifting the New Testament evidence Flemming uncovers the patterns and parameters of a Paul or Mark or John as they spoke the Word on target and he brings these to bear on our contemporary missiological task Rich in insights and conversant with frontline thinking this is a book that will revitalize the conversation and refresh our speaking and living the gospel in today's cultures whether in traditional modern or emergent contexts
