Dynamics Of Race And Gender Some Feminist Interventions:

The Dynamics Of Race And Gender Haleh Afshar, Mary Maynard, 2012-10-12 During the past decade feminism and women's studies have been forced to acknowledge the diversities of women's experiences as well as the patriarchal oppression that they share. The emphasis on difference has shattered the illusion of homogeneity and sisterhood which previously characterized white middle class Westernized feminist politics and analysis. There is relatively little work which concentrates on the interrelationships of race and gender in general and the consequences of racism for women of different backgrounds in particular. The Dynamics of Race and Gender aims to contribute to the debate and understanding in this area. Emphasis has been given to age class disability race and sexuality. The contributors to this volume are from different religious cultural and ethnic backgrounds giving a balanced and broad ranging perspective on this important social question. Organized around three main themes which are issues of theory and method questions of identity racism and sexism at work the chapters of this book indicate how the processes of race and gender interrelate in highly complex and contradictory ways. Demonstrating the benefits to be gained from analysing the interplay of various axes of differentiation in specific empirical and historical locations and in doing so under scoring the point that diversity among women cannot be seen as a static phenomenon.

Ethnicity, Gender and Social Change Harriet Bradley, Steve Fenton, 1999-02-08 Ethnicity Gender and Social Change explores the social space occupied by both gender and ethnicity. As recognition of the sociological importance of gender and ethnicity has grown so has the opportunity for exploring the intersections between them. This volume brings together both theoretical reflections and new research in this key area. For the sociologist this presents a conceptual challenge while for the individual it may present a series of dilemmas. These are intriguingly traced out in studies which take us from Punjabi families in the UK to Surinamese migrants in Amsterdam to Hindu and Muslim women and Black nurses in Britain the African and Asian diasporas and gender identity in post Soviet Latvia.

Qualitative Research in Action Tim May, 2002-04-22 Rather than being a how to book this volume examines the ideas and practices of qualitative research in terms of their applicability for an understanding and explanation of the place of qualitative research in the social sciences.

Muslim Women in Britain Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, Sariya Contractor, 2012 This book explores the lives of British women and examines the issues femininity Britishness inter communal relations and social cohesion. Presenting the reader with inclusive narratives of Muslim women which clarify their nuanced diversities the book makes a valuable contribution to the existing literature on Islamic studies social anthropology feminist philosophy and social cohesion. Occasional Papers, 1995

Arab Regional Women's studies workshop Cynthia Nelson, Soraya Altorki, 1998 Presents the lively proceedings of the 1998 workshop on Arab regional women's studies held at the American University in Cairo. Includes the text of several introductory speeches followed by pieces on comparative approaches to gender and women's studies and research and policy issues. Library. Research Libraries,1995 Out of Place Adi Kuntsman,Esperanza Miyake,2008 This volume asks daring and timely questions about the silence at the heart of queer studies Discussing race alongside queer often submerges raciality within queerness leaving racialised groups silent and silenced out of place This work creates a space where queerness raciality are brought together in creative tension to disturb these silences to hear the invisible to see the inaudible Urban Anthropology and Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development ,2004 Reconceptualizing the Family in a Changing Southern African Environment Sara C. Mvududu,Patricia McFadden,2001 This admirable wide ranging study grapples fearlessly with the mammoth topic of the Southern African family and in particular the positions and identities of women within the family and their rights Issues broached include women s access to land and physical resources human resources as a survival strategy the intersection of family law rights and resources methodological perspectives and the family as site for social transformation There is an explicit political and feminist agenda and urgent aim to encourage the reader to rethink the family to reconceptualise its meaning and contribute to the debate that surrounds the next phase of societies in change The narrative propels the reader along in the genuine anticipation that despite difficulties new ground is breaking and new ideas emerging which will interest firstly the Southern African woman but equally anyone interested in the topical and contentious issue of the family and its possibilities Philosophical Foundations of Social Research Methods: New strategies in social research Malcolm Williams,2006 The philosophy of social research is a subset of the philosophy of social science but also an important subject area spanning methodology and method The articles in this collection are the best exemplars of key positions in a very wide disciplinary field Topics covered include science and art in the history of social research positivism and antipositivism language and the linguistic turn realism and anti realism theory and theory choice logic and models prediction and laws interpretation probability and complexity The Construction of Womanhood in Algeria Nelli Kopola,2001 Development, Women, and War Haleh Afshar,Deborah Eade,2004 Surveys feminist approaches to peacebuilding and conflict resolution Covers conflicts in the Middle East Africa and Eastern Europe Policy makers practitioners and academics discuss long running conflicts in the Middle East Africa and Eastern Europe They highlight the shared experiences of women and their potential to contribute both to war and to peace Chapters survey feminist approaches to peace building and conflict resolution and present concrete policy measures to achieve these ends Underlying all the essays in this volume is a sense of the need to understand gendered power relations and the dynamics of social change Killing a Virus with Stones? Jane Bennett,2005 Immigration, Social Relations, and Mental Health in a Taiwanese-American Community Chien-Juh Gu,2004 Mental Health Among Taiwanese Americans Chien-Juh Gu,2006 Gu examines how Taiwanese Americans immigration background gender and relations in the family and workplace affect their mental health She argues that Taiwanese Americans experience of distress is not only gendered but also transnational Men s and women s experiences differ and transnational culture influences how they interpret their worlds While work situations frustrate men family life bothers women Their identities are multiple and fluid and they struggle with their American ness and Chinese ness in everyday life Men feel excluded by the majority culture in the workplace because they are too Chinese Women in contrast wonder if they should follow Chinese or American norms in dealing with their families
