Herbert Andrew Deane

Ea True Justice:

Actualidad del pensamiento de San Agustín Herbert Andrew Deane, 1963 Critical essay on St Augustine's analysis of the human condition as reflected in his writings by a scholar in political theory Christ and the Just Society in the Thought of Augustine Robert Dodaro, 2004-11-25 Christ and the Just Society in the Thought of Augustine is a study of Augustine's political thought and ethics in relation to his theology The book examines fundamental issues in Augustine's theological and political ethics in relation to the question How did Augustine conceive the just society At the heart of the book's approach is the relationship that Augustine outlines in his City of God and other writings between Christ and those believers who acknowledge him to be the only source of the soul's virtue The book demonstrates how Augustine sees Christ's grace and the scriptures contributing to the soul's growth in virtue especially as these issues are framed by the Pelagian controversy Finally the implications which Augustine sees for Christ's mediation of virtue are examined in relation to his revision of the ancient concepts of heroism and the statesman

Slaves of God Toni Alimi, 2024-08-06 Slaves of God provides the first philosophical explanation of Augustine's reasons for justifying slavery It shows that once we understand why Augustine judged slavery permissible we can appreciate the central role it plays in his broader religious ethical and political thought It demonstrates this by examining the role slavery played in his conceptions of religion worship law and citizenship This monograph also situates Augustine in the Roman intellectual landscape of late antiquity placing him in relation to Cicero Seneca Varro and Lactantius

The Life of Saint Elizabeth, of Hungary, Duchess of Thuringia Charles Forbes comte de Montalembert, 1879

The Metamorphoses of the City of God Etienne Gilson, Remi Brague, 2020-10-16 Etienne Gilson 1884-1978 was a French philosopher and historian of philosophy as well as a scholar of medieval philosophy In 1946 he attained the distinction of being elected an Immortal member of the Académie française He was nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1959 and 1964 The appearance of Gilson's Metamorphosis of the City of God which were originally delivered as lectures at the University of Louvain Belgium in the Spring of 1952 coincided with the first steps toward what would become the European Union The appearance of this English translation coincides with the upheaval of Brexit Gilson traces the various attempts of thinkers through the centuries to describe Europe's soul and delimit its parts The Scots Catalonians Flemings and probably others may nod in agreement in Gilson's observation on how odd would be a Europe composed of the political entities that existed two and a half centuries ago Those who think the European Union has lost its soul may not be comforted by the difficulty thinkers have had over the centuries in defining that soul Indeed the difficulties that have thus far prevented integrating Turkey into the EU confirm Gilson's description of the conundrum involved even in distinguishing Europe's material components And yet the endeavor has succeeded so that the problem of shared ideals remain inescapable One wonders which of the thinkers in the succession studied by Gilson might grasp assent and illuminate the EU's path

Preferring Justice Eric Cave, 2019-07-11 This manuscript is about the sense of justice that limits what individuals can do in pursuit of their ends and opens them to exploitation It shows how flawed agents choosing under partial information advance those of their ends having nothing to do with justice by maintaining such a disposition *Of the law of nature and nations.
