Choice For Europe:

The Choice for Europe Andrew Moravcsik, 2013-10-11 The creation of the European Union arguably ranks among the most extraordinary achievements in modern world politics. Observers disagree however about the reasons why European governments have chosen to coordinate core economic policies and surrender sovereign prerogatives. This text analyzes the history of the region's movement toward economic and political union. Do these unifying steps demonstrate the pre-eminence of national security concerns, the power of federalist ideals, the skill of political entrepreneurs like Jean Monnet and Jacques Delors, or the triumph of technocratic planning? Moravcsik rejects such views. Economic interdependence has been he maintains the primary force compelling these democracies to move in this surprising direction. Politicians rationally pursued national economic advantage through the exploitation of asymmetrical interdependence and the manipulation of institutional commitments.

Brussels and Europe Roel De Groof, 2009 Fifty years after the conclusion of the Treaties of Rome 25 March 1957 and the foundation of the European Economic Community Brussels has become a political world city and international capital with global influence. The acts of the interuniversity and international colloquium held in Brussels on 18 and 19 December 2006 present a general outline of the research results and 26 contributions based on original research and divided into three parts. The first part focuses on Brussels position in the world city network. How has Brussels grown into the European and international capital we know today? What exactly is its legal status as the European Capital? Of course other aspects such as the relationship between the Brussels Capital Region and the Europe of Regions and the role of Brussels as the place for lobbying the European Union are also examined. The second part focuses on the interaction between the European institutions and Brussels. What are the socioeconomic demographic political and linguistic effects of their presence? Finally a number of pressure points and areas of tension are analysed How is Brussels imagined or represented as the capital of Europe And what is the impact of the European presence on urban planning and security policy Back cover

Republican Europe Anna Kocharov,2017-06-01 Constitutional orders constitute political communities and international orders deriving from them by managing conflicts that threaten peace This book explores how a European political community can be advanced through EU constitutional law The constitutional role of the Union is to ensure peace by addressing two types of conflict The first are static conflicts of interests between the national polities in the EU These are avoided by ensuring reciprocal non interference between Member States in the Union through deregulation in Union law The second are dynamic conflicts of ideas about positive liberty held by the peoples of Europe These can be resolved through regulation in a European political space Here EU law enables a continuous process of re negotiating a shared European idea of positive liberty that can be accepted as its own by each national polity in the EU These solutions to the two types of conflicts correspond to the liberal and republican models for Europe The claim of this book is that the constitutional design of Europe presents both liberal and republican features Taking an innovative approach which draws on arguments from substantive law constitutional theory case law analysis insights from psychology and philosophy it identifies how best to strengthen the Union through constitutional law

Citizens and the European Polity David Sanders,Pedro Magalhaes,Gabor Toka,2012-07-26 Citizens and the European Polity reviews empirical data covering nearly forty years in the development of the Union and shows how comparable challenges in the past shaped public opinion towards integration and via that the process of integration itself

Handbook of European Societies Stefan Immerfall,2009 European integration is one of the most ambitious and socially far reaching developments in world politics and in world economics Against growing opposition and despite increasing social heterogeneity the European Union continues to expand and to acquire new competences But to what extent is the self proclaimed ever closer union among the peoples of Europe a social reality In which ways is the political European project anchored in social developments How does social change impinge upon political integration Societal trends in multi cultural multi ethnic multi lingual and socially diverse Europe have never been studied systematically Handbook of European Societies Social Transformations in the 21st Century sets to rectify this neglect of societal developments in Europe providing a groundwork for the sociology of European integration The book portrays social life and social relations in the enlarged Europe and gives a perspective on the European Union as an evolving social entity Handbook of European Societies is a pioneering source book analyzing the current social patterns on the continent It covers a representative selection of major topics of social concern and sociological relevance such as Collective Action Consumption Identity Power Structure Sexuality Stratification and Well being Each contribution probes key developments in a strictly comparative manner The Handbook thus offers a detailed look into the intricacies of the national societies of Europe and into the prospect of an emerging European society The Editors have enlisted leading researchers to synthesize existing knowledge and to make use of many different data sources in a straight forward style The contributions stay away from jargon simple labeling and sweeping assertions Instead they provide solid and accessible information on a wide variety of social trends and processes within and across European societies Europe's Burden Alina Mungiu-Pippidi,2020 Investigates the efficacy of the European Union s promotion of good governance through its funding and conditionalities both within EU proper and in the developing world The Map of Europe by Treaty: No. 357-451, 1864-1875.
