Eagle In A Gauze Cage:

The Labor of the Mind Anthony J. La Vopa, 2017-08-18 How did educated and cultivated men in early modern France and Britain perceive and value their own and women's cognitive capacities and how did women in their circles challenge those perceptions if only by revaluing the kinds of intelligence attributed to them? What was thought to distinguish the manly mind from the feminine mind? How did awareness of these questions inform various kinds of published and unpublished texts including the philosophical treatise, the dialogue, the polite essay, and the essay in literary criticism? The Labor of the Mind plumbs the social and cultural logic of the Enlightenment's trope of the manly mind, offers new readings of the textual representations of it, and examines the ways in which the trope was subverted or at least subtly questioned. With close readings of the writings of well-known and less familiar men and women including Poullain de la Barre, The Third Earl of Shaftesbury, Madeleine de Scudry, David Hume, Antoine L. onard, Thomas Suzanne, Curchod, Necker, Denis Diderot, and Louise d'Épinay, and tracing their social networks and friendships, Anthony J. La Vopa explores the problematic opposition between mental labor as concentrated and sustained work, a labor of abstraction and judgment for which only men had the strength, and an aesthetic of effortless and tasteful play in polite conversation in which women were thought to excel. Covering nearly a century and a half of cultural and intellectual life from France to England and Scotland and then back again, La Vopa locates beneath the tenacity of assumed natural differences a lexicon imbued with ambivalence, ambiguity, and argument. The Labor of the Mind reveals the legacy for modernity of a fraught gendering of intellectual labor.

The Labor of the Mind Anthony J. LaVopa, 2017-09-07 The Labor of the Mind plumbs the Enlightenment's social and cultural logic of conceiving the mind as manly, considers the textual representations of the manly mind, and examines the ways in which it was subverted or at least subtly questioned.

Sexual Politics in the Enlightenment Mary Seidman Trouille, 1997-08-28 Explores the way seven women writers of the eighteenth century responded to Rousseau and traces his crucial influence on their literary careers.

The Portraits of Madame de Pompadour Elise Goodman, 2000-01-01 An immensely eloquent tour de force demonstrating the complex and often contradictory position of women in both intellectual and visual culture, Goodman examines Pompadour as an icon of court culture who simultaneously represents sexuality and the life of the mind. The paintings are the visual record of a remarkable and self-conscious fashioning of femininity. Dymphna Callaghan, author of Feminist Companion to Shakespeare, Elise Goodman's stimulating and richly illustrated study recovers the visual record of women's place in the French Enlightenment. She traces a trend engineered as much by the women themselves as by the artists who painted them, in which learning joins beauty to create a new iconography of female portraiture. Susan S. Lanser, author of Fictions of Authority: Women Writers and Narrative Voice.
