Drifting To Dawn:

The Southern Bivouac William McDonald, Basil Wilson Duke, Richard W. Knott, 1886      Drifting Flowers of the Sea and Other Poems Sadakichi Hartmann, 1904      Collected Works of Kenneth White, Volume 1 Kenneth White, 2021-03-02

These three books reflect the beginnings of one of the most radical and exhilarating figures in modern literature. Incandescent Limbo recounts White's years in Paris. Many a writer in the modern era had made Paris a focal point of his or her activity but probably no one made more of it or got more out of it than Kenneth White. While exploring a labyrinthine underworld the book is fundamentally an autoanalysis and traces the birth of the writer as an intellectual nomad. Letters from Gourgounel takes us from the city to a wild part of south eastern France the Ardeche where White undertakes a resourcing in an elementary context. Hailed in England as a fascinating curiosity of literature this book not only made White famous overnight in France it was seen there as a turning point in the contemporary situation. In the third book Travels in the Drifting Dawn the intellectual nomad begins his moves across territories and cultures. After passing through the London underground of the sixties then delving into the ground of his native Scotland and neighbouring Ireland we shift back to the Continent accumulating experience on different levels in France Spain Belgium Holland before concluding the cycle in North Africa. The trilogy is not only a summary of White's itinerary in its initial stages it opens up a whole intellectual and cultural programme.

Travels in the Drifting Dawn Kenneth White, 1972      The Progressive Teacher, 1905      Collected Works of Kenneth White, Volume 2 Kenneth White, 2021-03-02

Three collections of essays whose aim is to express the cartography and the experience of a live open world. These essays all explore Scottish subjects and the wider issues of geopoetics. This volume starts with On Scottish Ground by delving into forgotten cultural resources. Ideas of Order at Cape Wrath explores more socio-political considerations before opening out to a larger space of cosmological meditation in The Wanderer and his Charts.

This book is both a study of the work of the Scottish writer Kenneth White in thought travel writing and poetry and an application of one of White's main concepts geopoetics to Charles Doughty's Arabia Deserta. It is a largely forgotten fact that Doughty considered all his travels to be leading up to an ars poetica. Omar Bsaithi's thesis is that Arabia Deserta is a superb example of geopoetics in action. The result of the meeting of White and Doughty orchestrated by Bsaithi is not only the reinterpretation of an English classic and perhaps a renewal of Arab studies it is an introduction via the writings of Kenneth White to a regrounded field of culture. In his presentation of geopoetics and intellectual nomadism Bsaithi draws attention both to the nature of discontent felt in the Western culture and civilization in the postmodern era and to the possible forms of encounter between figures highly representative of the Western mind searching for the ways out and other cultural spaces Khalid Hajji Professor at Mohamed 1rst University Oujda Morocco It is the merit of Mr Omar Bsaithi s book to focus on a Franco Scottish poet to establish an unprecedented correlation with Charles Doughty author of Travels in Arabia Deserta By so doing he applies a method which belongs to Kenneth White s own geopoetic practice in a different and a priori foreign cultural context he reveals similitudes and links through the study of a deeper and more poetic relation to terrestrial space Laurent Margantin Universit de La R union
