The Making of T.S. Eliot Joseph Maddrey,2009-05-13 This chronological survey of major influences on T S Eliot's worldview covers the poet's spiritual and intellectual evolution in stages by trying to see the world as Eliot did. It examines his childhood influences as well as the literary influences that inspired him to write his earliest poetry. His life as an American expatriate living in London from 1915 to 1930, including his ill-fated marriage and his intellectual engagement with the literary traditions of his new country and the ways in which his intellectual pursuits fostered a spiritual rebirth that simultaneously reflected his past and revealed his future, demonstrating how the early Romantic revolutionary became a staunch defender of tradition.

Modernism Lawrence Rainey, 2005-07-15. Modernism: An Anthology is the most comprehensive anthology of Anglo-American modernism ever to be published. Amply represents the giants of modernism: James Joyce, Gertrude Stein, Virginia Woolf, T. S. Eliot, Ezra Pound, Wallace Stevens, Marianne Moore, Samuel Beckett. Includes a generous selection of Continental texts enabling readers to trace modernism's dialogue with the Futurists, the Dadaists, the Surrealists, and the Frankfurt School. Supported by helpful annotations and an extensive bibliography. Allows readers to encounter anew the extraordinary revolution in language that transformed the aesthetics of the modern world.

Dry Sterile Thunder Jim Accardi, 2004-06-10. New D.A. Katie O'Brien, heroine of Saigon Landing, has a real problem: a possible serial killer is terrorizing her Alabama community, and she and veteran homicide investigator Bobby Franks are struggling to decipher taunting clues left at the scenes of the ritualistic killings. Although she's a veteran trial lawyer with a background in psychology, Katie's unable to zero in on the arrogant but clever killer. With the help of longtime friend Avery May, Katie eventually determines that the clues are coded to successive sections of an eighty-odd-year-old poem. But this realization only produces a string of suspects with no clear evidence of guilt as to any of them. Even worse, a horrible possibility exists that other victims have already been assigned to the remaining sections of the poem. Time is clearly running out for Katie, Bobby Franks, and Avery May.

Prize Poems, 1913-1929 Charles Abraham Wagner, 1930. Poetry produced in the United States between the year 1913 and the year 1929. Introduction.

Asian Religions in America Thomas A. Tweed, Stephen R. Prothero, 1999. This book presents the American encounter with Asian religions through a wide range of documents written and visual, from elite and popular culture dating from 1788 to the present. Coverage of Buddhism, Hinduism, and Islam predominate; through selections from other religions are included Daoism, Confucianism, Shinto, Sikhism. The entries are divided into four chronological periods. The first section traces the initial attempts to map the earliest contacts up to 1840; the second section from 1840 to 1924 presents the first real passages from east to west and west to east; the third from 1924 to 1965 sketches a drifting period when immigration has stopped and Euro-American interest in Asian religions was minimal; and the final section, which takes us to the present, covers a time when the encounter intensifies greatly.
