Bootlegged Angel:

Bootlegged Angel Mike Ripley, 2001 Fitzroy Maclean Angel goes undercover in an attempt to infiltrate a ring of bootleggers who are smuggling beer in from France It appears that there are two gangs working the area and when he discovers that one of the consignments is a cover for smuggled drugs things begin to get violent Mr Campion's Fox Mike Ripley, 2015-06-01 A request from the Danish Ambassador leads Albert Campion into a baffling murder case in this finely crafted historical mystery The Danish Ambassador has requested Albert Campion's help on a delicate family matter He's very concerned about his eighteen year old daughter who has formed an attachment to a most unsuitable young man Recruiting his unemployed actor son Rupert to keep an eye on Frank Tate the young man in question Mr Campion notes some decidedly odd behaviour on the part of the up and coming photographer Before he can act on the matter however both the Ambassador's daughter and her beau disappear without trace Then a body is discovered in a lagoon With appearances from all of Margery Allingham's regular characters from Campion's former manservant Lugg to his wife Lady Amanda Fitton and others this witty and elegant mystery is sure to delight Allingham's many fans The dialogue is sharp and witty the observation keen and the climax is thrilling and eerily atmospheric

Buried Above Ground Mike Ripley, 2025-09-02 An original spin on the crime novel in which the race to gain the rights to an author's backlist proves to be more head scratching and deadly than the plots in his books Another absolutely brilliant book from Ripley Booklist Starred Review The Librarian It's been two decades since mystery writer Duncan Torrens was last published I should know I was his editor So why a blogger would turn up asking questions about the rights to his books is beyond me The Reader That librarian Roly is a bit odd You'd think he'd be happy with my blog's research into a largely forgotten author but he's resistant If I can get into Duncan's home and his mysterious garden shed I know I'll find what I'm looking for The Publisher Torrens books are crying out for a revival I just need that blogger Jaco to work out who holds the rights to his backlist Then I can acquire them before Duncan's old publishing house realises they've missed a trick The Editor I never worked directly with Duncan before he died but if someone is sniffing round there must be money involved I just need to find out what's happened to the rights before they do The Writer After twenty years will the sudden interest in this author's forgotten mysteries reveal a dark and deadly twist Told from the point of view of five unreliable narrators none of whom can be trusted The Librarian The Reader The Publisher The Editor and The Writer this amusing and darkly intriguing novel is a refreshingly fun subversive take on the crime fiction genre

Gumshoes Mitzi M. Brunsdale, 2006-04-30 The enormous explosion of crime fiction over the last decade means that more people are looking for a good mystery than ever before This dictionary of fictional detectives helps readers learn about the series in which their favorite detectives are featured Included are alphabetically arranged entries on roughly 150 fictional detectives which provide information about the works in which the detective appears the locales in which the detective operates the detective's investigative methods and other important information Helpful bibliographical citations direct the reader to other interesting works The volume closes with a selected general bibliography various appendices and an extensive index The enormous explosion of crime fiction over the last decade means that more people are looking for a good mystery than ever before Many of the most popular mystery books appear in series and these series feature carefully developed detectives
