Booze And The Private Eye Alcohol In The Hard Boiled Novel:

Booze and the Private Eye Rita Elizabeth Rippetoe, 2015-01-24 The hard bitten PI with a bottle of bourbon in his desk drawer it s an image as old as the genre of hard boiled detective fiction itself Alcohol has long been an important element of detective fiction but it is no mere prop Rather the treatment of alcohol within the works informs and illustrates the detective s moral code and casts light upon the society s attitudes towards drink This examination of the role of alcohol in hard boiled detective fiction begins with the genre s birth in an era strongly influenced and affected by prohibition and follows both the genre s development and its relation to our changing understanding of and attitudes towards alcohol and alcoholism It discusses the works of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Mickey Spillane Robert B Parker Lawrence Sanders Marcia Muller Karen Kijewski and Sue Grafton There are bibliographies of both the primary and critical texts and an index of authors and works

Gender Bending Detective Fiction Heather Duerre Humann, 2017-03-06 Since the middle of the last century views on gender norms have shifted dramatically Reflecting these changes storylines that involve cross dressing and transgender characters have frequently appeared in detective fiction characters who subvert the conventions of the genre and challenge reader expectations This examination of 20th and 21st century crime novels reveals what these narratives say about gender identity and gender expression and how they contributed to the evolution of detective fiction

Blood on the Table Jean Anderson, Carolina Miranda, Barbara Pezzotti, 2018-04-24 Written from a multicultural and interdisciplinary perspective this collection of new essays explores the semiotics of food in the 20th and 21st century crime fiction of authors such as Anthony Bourdain Arthur Upfield Sara Paretsky Andrea Camilleri Fred Vargas Ruth Rendell Stieg Larsson Leonardo Padura Georges Simenon Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Donna Leon The collection covers a range of issues such as the provision of intra peri or paratextual recipes the aesthetics and ethics of food eating rituals as indications of cultural belonging and regional national and supranational identities It also tackles eating disorders and other seemingly abnormal habits as signs of Otherness Also mentioned are the television productions of the Inspector Montalbano series 1999 ongoing the Danish Swedish Bron Broen 2011 The Bridge and its remakes The Tunnel 2013 France UK and The Bridge 2013 USA

Dining Room Detectives Silvia Baucekova, 2015-09-04 In the structuralist understanding as proposed by John G Cawelti a classical detective novel is defined as a formula which contains prescribed elements and develops in a predefined ritualistic manner When described in this way the crime fiction formula very closely resembles a recipe when one cooks they also add prescribed ingredients in a predefined way in order to produce the final dish This surprising parallel serves as the starting point for this book s analysis of classical detective novels by Agatha Christie Here a structuralist approach to Golden Age crime fiction is complemented by methodology developed in the field of food studies in order to demonstrate the twofold role that food plays in Christie s novels namely its function as an element of the formula a literary device but also as a cultural sign Christie employed food on various different levels of her stories in order to portray characters construct plots and depict settings What is more incorporating domesticity and food in her novels helped her fundamentally alter the rigid conventions of the crime fiction genre as it developed in the nineteenth century and enabled her to successfully introduce the character of the female detective and to feminise the detective novel as such

The Detective as Historian Ray Broadus Browne, Lawrence A. Kreiser, 2007 Deeper understanding of history is enhanced by encasing it in art and interest Crime fiction is one of the widest and most rapidly growing forms of literature Historical crime fiction serves effectively the double purpose of entertaining while it teaches The truth of the narrative account the editors of this volume believe is dependent on the understanding of human nature reflected in the author who writes the narrative Historical crime fiction the editors of this volume write has an obligation and a golden opportunity It must bring the past up to the present through the device of timeless crime and it must take the reader into the world about which is being written so that the characters are alive and the events interesting and challenging Professional writers of fiction need to be more effective than mere authors of dates and assumed motivations Therefore they can fill in human motivations and drives where no records exist and can aid the professional historians in what historian David Thelen calls the challenge of history which is to recover the past and interpret it for the present The essays in this volume accept the challenge and make major accomplishments for meeting it
