Border Jumper:

Border Jumping and Migration Control in Southern Africa Francis Musoni, 2020-04-07 With the end of apartheid rule in South Africa and the ongoing economic crisis in Zimbabwe the border between these Southern African countries has become one of the busiest inland ports of entry in the world As border crossers wait for clearance crime violence and illegal entries have become rampant Francis Musoni observes that border jumping has become a way of life for many of those who live on both sides of the Limpopo River and he explores the reasons for this including searches for better paying jobs and access to food and clothing at affordable prices Musoni sets these actions into a framework of illegality He considers how countries have failed to secure their borders why passports are denied to travelers and how border jumping has become a phenomenon with a long history especially in Africa Musoni emphasizes cross border travelers active participation in the making of this history and how clandestine mobility has presented opportunity and creative possibilities for those who are willing to take the risk

Mobility in Contemporary Zimbabwean Literature in English Magdalena Pfalzgraf, 2021-06-29 This monograph explores the concept of mobility in Zimbabwean works of fiction published in English between the introduction of the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme and the end of the Mugabe era Since 2000 Zimbabwe has experienced unprecedented levels of transnational out migration in response to the political conflicts and economic downturn often referred to as the Zimbabwe Crisis This in turn has led to an increased outpouring of literary texts about migration both in locally produced texts and in works by authors based in the diaspora Situating Zimbabwe s recent literary developments in a wider context of Southern African writing and history this book focuses on texts that portray movement within Zimbabwe s cities between village and city to South Africa and overseas The author examines important developments and trends in recent Zimbabwean literature investigating the link between state authoritarianism and control of mobility and literature s potential to intervene into dominant political discourses The book includes in depth analyses of ten recent works of fiction published in the post 2000 era and develops mobility as a key category of literary analysis of Zimbabwe s contemporary literatures Setting out a rich dialogue between literary criticism and mobility studies this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature Southern Africa migration and mobility

African Agency and European Colonialism Femi James Kolapo, Kwabena O. Akurang-Parry, 2007 This work provides insights into important moments in the European colonization project in Africa and into structural intersections between the active agents of colonialism and the different layers of Africa s socio political structures It reveals the indispensability of the African peoples their pre colonial establishments and knowledge of the colonial encounter The book also clarifies the significant impact that African people s choices chances mistakes and internal politics had in structuring their colonial experience and European dominance Colonized Africans and colonizing Europeans had to negotiate the nature of their relationship the grid nexus and hierarchy of colonial power and authority were constantly under construction deconstruction and reconstruction African Agency and European Colonialism expounds upon these beclouded features of Africa's engagement of colonialism. It is appropriate for students, scholars, political analysts, sociologists, and other professionals interested in the social and political history of Africa. Book jacket: Cross-border Migration: Zimbabwe - South Africa Exodus Elvis A Masawi, 2017-01-14. The tribulations and terrors of the Zimbabwean diaspora seeking economic sanctuary in South Africa. Marvels Project Ed Brubaker, 2011-06-08. Who is the mysterious old man who lies on his deathbed in a hospital in 1939 and how does his passing mark the beginning of the first heroic age of the Marvel Universe and signal the rise of the superhumans? Ed Brubaker and Steve Epting unveil the defining story of the origin of the Marvel Universe, revealing the hidden connections that unite the earliest costumed champions and whose reverberations are felt dramatically into the present day. It's a world on the brink of war and the race is on to create the world's first super soldier. Collecting Marvels Project 2009 1 8. Moto, 2000. The Elevator Constructor, 1926.
