for Poland's integration into the EU. The paper will attempt to demonstrate the connection between cultural exchange and political relations. In the course of the analysis, the significance of stereotypes and prejudices formed by historical events and circumstances is being analysed. The focus is on the endeavours undertaken by Polish and German governments, civil society organisations and cultural institutions to make a difference concerning the complicated historical and political situation regarding the EU enlargement and Poland's accession. Borders in Art Katarzyna Murawska-Muthesius, 2000
