In Chapter 3 of American Born Chinese, we meet the cousin character for the first time. Describe how Danny feels about his cousin. Use two examples from this chapter to prove your answer.

Danny is embarrassed by his cousin and fears how he will affect his social life. When the cousin character arrives at Danny's house and meets Melanie, the cousin character makes an offensive comment about "binding her feet" and having his children, which clearly shocks and embarrasses Danny. Later, Danny shows he's worried about his cousin ruining his school reputation when he calls out, "MAN!" and has a panicked look on his face. These two moments show that Danny sees the cousin character's behavior as a serious threat to his own image and reputation. Because of the cousin character's actions and comments, Danny feels uncomfortable and tries to distance himself.
