Born with a Mission Carl W. Adams, Dolly McElhaney, 1981-01-01      Children of Coyote, Missionaries of Saint Francis Steven W. Hackel, 2017-01-15 Recovering lost voices and exploring issues intimate and institutional this sweeping examination of Spanish California illuminates Indian struggles against a confining colonial order and amidst harrowing depopulation To capture the enormous challenges Indians confronted Steven W Hackel integrates textual and quantitative sources and weaves together analyses of disease and depopulation marriage and sexuality crime and punishment and religious economic and political change As colonization reduced their numbers and remade California Indians congregated in missions where they forged communities under Franciscan oversight Yet missions proved disastrously unhealthful and coercive as Franciscans sought control over Indians beliefs and instituted unfamiliar systems of labor and punishment Even so remnants of Indian groups still survived when Mexican officials ended Franciscan rule in the 1830s Many regained land and found strength in ancestral cultures that predated the Spaniards arrival At this study s heart are the dynamic interactions in and around Mission San Carlos Borromeo between Monterey region Indians the Children of Coyote and Spanish missionaries soldiers and settlers Hackel places these local developments in the context of the California mission system and draws comparisons between California and other areas of the Spanish Borderlands and colonial America Concentrating on the experiences of the Costanoan and Esselen peoples during the colonial period Children of Coyote concludes with an epilogue that carries the story of their survival to the present day      Home Mission Monthly ,1902

She began teaching in 1890 at age eighteen in a one room Wabash County Indiana schoolhouse then attended Mount Morris College in Illinois and later became an instructor in the Bible School at Manchester College in her hometown of North Manchester Indiana But Alice could not ignore the call of her Christian faith to teach the Gospel message of hope to those who had never heard of Jesus In 1900 Alice and her husband Adam sailed to Bombay India where they served as Church of the Brethren missionaries in the villages and towns of western India until 1931 Together they raised two daughters there and made their home at seven different mission stations Mastering both Marathi and Gujarati they worked together to improve living conditions and health care in areas of great need Adam built orphanages and schools and alleviated the suffering of sick people who lacked access to medical care due to caste restrictions Alice worked with women and children teaching them to read and work together as a Christian community After retirement to North Manchester and following Adam s death in 1939 Alice returned to India for another term as missionary in 1945 1947 Adapting to a very different way of life Alice and Adam lived through turbulent times of personal tragedies hardship and social change Yet Alice vowed to teach and teach and teach with love and pray with confidence trusting God to guide them through grief and discouragement Returning to North Manchester where she lived until her death in 1960 she spoke and wrote about her experiences and told marvelous stories to her grandchildren Her words taught many others of the wonders of India the kindness of its people and our common humanity When Alice died she left a trunk full of diaries letters and other documents containing her private thoughts and public writing for her granddaughter Janice Shull to discover From this treasure the author reveals Alice s story of faith courage and hope a story that continues to teach a message of service and compassion today
