Bound To Cooperate Conflict Peace And People In Sierra Leone:

Bound to Cooperate Anatole N. Ayissi, Robin Poulton, 2000 Africa's economic and social development has been held back by armed conflicts that have inflicted death injury hunger and homelessness This book recognizes that in order to achieve economic development in an environment of peace and security ordinary men and women from West Africa must be closely included in the process This publication gives a voice to the civil society of Sierra Leone and lets it tell what it thinks is the best way to tackle the scourge of small arms proliferation UN website

Recovering from Civil Conflict Edward Newman, Albrecht Schnabel, 2002 This volume highlights some of the major conceptual and practical challenges facing post conflict societies and the international community in managing transition

Liberal Peace and Post-Conflict Peacebuilding in Africa Patrick Tom, 2017-01-27 The book makes theoretical and empirical contributions to recent debates on hybrid forms of peace and post liberal peace In applying concepts of power hybridity and resistance and providing different kinds of hybridity and resistance to explore post conflict peacebuilding in Sierra Leone the author makes an original contribution to existing literature by providing various ways in which power can be exercised not just between locals and internationals but also among locals themselves and the nature of peace that is produced This volume provides various ways in which hybridity and resistance can be manifested A more rigorous development of these concepts not only offers a better understanding of the nature of these concepts but also helps us to distinguish forms of hybridity and resistance that are emancipatory or transformatory from those that result in people accommodating themselves to their situation This book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies International Relations and African Studies and practitioners of peacebuilding and post conflict reconstruction

Mediation and Liberal Peacebuilding Mikael Eriksson, Roland Kostić, 2013-02-15 This book offers a state of the art examination of peacemaking looking at its theoretical assumptions empirical applications and its consequences Despite the wealth of research on external interventions and practices of Western peacebuilding many scholars tend to rely on findings in the so called post agreement phase of interventions As a result most mainstream peacebuilding literature pays limited or no attention to the linkages that exist between mediation practices in the negotiation phase and processes in the post peace agreement phase of intervention By linking the motives and practices of interveners during negotiation and implementation phases into a more integrated theoretical framework this book makes a unique contribution to the on going debate on the so called Western liberal models of peacebuilding Drawing upon in depth case studies from various different regions of the world including Bosnia Herzegovina Kosovo Afghanistan Sudan Ivory Coast Senegal and Sierra Leone this innovative volume examines a variety of political motives behind third party interventions thus challenging the very founding concept of mediation literature This book will of much interest to students of peacebuilding statebuilding peacemaking war and conflict studies security studies and IR in general

securitization processes outside of the West with a focus on Africa The aim of the volume is to develop an original analytical framework to explain the securitization neo patrimonialism dynamics in West Africa drawing upon insights from securitization theory sociology and psychology Among critical voices securitization has become the gold standard for analysing emerging challenges such as migration terrorism and human security Yet despite its broadening agenda the framework has also been accused of bias with a Western political context and democratic governance structure at its heart This book aims to re conceptualise the framework in a way that suits non Western contexts better notably by re conceptualising the securitization neopatrimonialism nexus in Africa which gives us significant new insights into non Western political contexts It analyses the securitization processes among the political elites under neo patrimonial statehood and further stretches the conceptualisation of securitization into African statehood which is characterised by a blurred line between the leader and the state The volume explores the processes of securitizing threats in Liberia Sierra Leone and wider West Africa as well as the neo patrimonial regimes of these states In doing so it explores the influence these states neo patrimonial regimes have on the processes of threat securitization This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies African politics and International Relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Civil Militia David J. Francis, 2017-07-05 This volume critically engages with the phenomenon of civil militias in Africa It questions why the African political scene is increasingly inundated with the activities of civil militias examines the socio political and economic conditions that trigger and or encourage and sustain the operations of civil militias and investigates the dominant motivations of African civil militias
