Sample Book Insights

- 1 Sherrie's son Todd was a strong willed child who didn't listen to her or his father She didn't want to quench his spirit so she didn't want to stop him from doing whatever he wanted
- 2 The author's life was similar to Lois's every day She would listen to people's problems console them and give advice but never received any in return
- 3 The author's friend Sherrie was always described as dependable by people who wanted something from her Sounds like a description of a good mule Sherrie began to resent having to help her friend and secretly wished she could be transplanted to another flower pot
- 4 When Todd's third grade teacher noticed that he was always on task when he was interested in the subject she wondered if Todd had an attention deficit problem or was just hyperactive But when she tested him he came out normal
