Chilcotin Holiday:

Gila Country Legend Nancy Coggeshall, 2014-12-15 If there was ever a ring tailed roarer of the backwoods of New Mexico he was Quentin Hulse 1926-2002 Hulse lived and worked most of his life at the bottom of Canyon Creek in the Gila River country of southwestern New Mexico but his reputation spread far and wide His western image appeared on a tourist postcard and souvenir license plate in the 1950s Footage of a lion hunt led by Hulse and his hounds appeared on the Men s Channel in 2005 three years after his passing Hulse grew up primarily in western New Mexico when that ranch and mining country was still remote and raw At the age of ten he witnessed a point blank shooting the culmination of an old fashioned frontier feud He followed his parents between mines and towns until his father established a ranch at Canyon Creek While serving in the navy during World War II he landed on the bloody beach at Okinawa After returning from the war he was shot in a bar near Silver City during a night of carousing Hulse was most at home in the rugged Gila Wilderness in which he ranched and guided for fifty years With compassion and nuance Nancy Coggeshall tells the compelling biography of a unique western rancher constantly adjusting to the inroads of modernity into his traditional way of life Drawing on oral history archival sources and her personal association with Hulse and the Gila she brings this unique westerner and New Mexican to life
