Lamb,Kathleen J. Sternberg,Carl-Philip Hwang,Anders G. Broberg,2014-01-02 Child care is an integral part of the web of influences and experiences that shape children s development Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach that covers both historic and economic contexts this unique book characterizes child care in 18 countries on five continents Specific historical roots and the current social contexts of child care are delineated in industrialized as well as in developing countries To increase the depth of crosscultural analysis and integration commentators from countries and disciplines other than the authors comment on the issues raised in each chapter Research in Education ,1972 Resources in Education ,1972 Recent Perspectives on Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Larry Prochner,2012-01-01 Early childhood education is critical for preparing children for success in formal school settings and as such is a major concern throughout the world This volume brings together ground breaking research in this area to help practitioners students policy makers curriculum designers and intervention program developers understand the latest ideas and advances in the field Recent Perspectives of Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada centres on three key themes The first provides a survey of historical social policy economic and provincial regulations and policies related to early childhood education and care The second focuses on issues related to children s learning curriculum and teachers The final theme addresses recent developments in government involvement in early childhood education and care that are unique to Canada The contributors to this volume demonstrate the pressing need that exists to further public discussion on early childhood education to help policymakers shape better decisions for Canadian families

Public Health in Action Jan K. Carney,2006 This is the first book that looks at public health as much art as science The author draws on real examples with a behind the scenes look at the strategy and action that must be undertaken to make public health really work

Sharing Child Care in Early Parenthood Malcolm Hill,2023-02-13 Originally published in 1987 Malcolm Hill examines the different ways in which parents share responsibility for looking after their pre school children with other people whether members of their social networks formal groups or paid carers He also looks at the reasons parents give for choosing and changing their particular arrangements In this way he provides insights into a range of ideas which ordinary members of the public have about children s needs the rights and responsibilities of mothers and fathers and how children think and feel Marked differences are described in the social relationships of families and in notions about who is acceptable as a substitute carer for children in what circumstances and for what purpose Several of these contrasts are linked to attitudes and life conditions which are affected by social class The book identifies possible consequences for individual children s social adaptability resulting from these patterns of care It suggests that people working with the under fives could profit from adapting their activities and services to children s previous experiences of shared care and families differing expectations about groups for children
