Whitaker's Cumulative Book List , 1975 Animals and Other People Heather Keenleyside, 2016-10-03 In Animals and Other People Heather Keenleyside argues for the central role of literary modes of knowledge in apprehending animal life Keenleyside focuses on writers who populate their poetry novels and children s stories with conspicuously figurative animals experiment with conventional genres like the beast fable and write the lives of mice as well as men From such writers including James Thomson Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift Laurence Sterne Anna Letitia Barbauld and others she recovers a key insight about the representation of living beings when we think and write about animals we are never in the territory of strictly literal description relying solely on the evidence of our senses Indeed any description of animals involves personification of a sort if we understand personification not as a rhetorical ornament but as a fundamental part of our descriptive and conceptual repertoire essential for distinguishing living beings from things Throughout the book animals are characterized by a distinctive mode of agency and generality they are at once moving and being moved at once individual beings and generic or species figures every cat is also The Cat Animals thus become figures with which to think about key philosophical questions about the nature of human agency and of social and political community They also come into view as potential participants in that community as one sort of people among others Demonstrating the centrality of animals to an eighteenth century literary and philosophical tradition Animals and Other People also argues for the importance of this tradition to current discussions of what life is and how we might live together Child Development for Child Care and Protection Workers Brigid Daniel, Sally Wassell, Robbie Gilligan, 2011-02-12 This is a classic text for students and practitioners in the child care and protection field which summarises important current thinking on child development and applies it directly to practice The book covers key issues such as resilience and vulnerability and the impact of protective or adverse environments Culture and Personality Victor Barnouw, 1985 The Bookseller, 1976 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 Subject Catalog, 1975 Library of Congress, 1975 The Writers Directory, 1990 Catalogue Tavistock Institute of Human Relations. Stark, 1996 A chronicle of 85 lives beginning in 1956 during each one's infancy through 1988 telling the story of seriously deprived children who surmounted adversity and the coping mechanisms each has adopted in adulthood The study initiated as a Canadian research project began as a simple evaluation of institutionalized children and then took on a second and third phase as researchers continued to track the children as they entered foster or adoptive homes and then their own adulthoods The volume analyzes the study's results commenting on such issues as regression trust adaptation and the group's healthiness in light of its background Canadian card order number C95 933374 6 Paper edition unseen 16 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
