My Life in the Shtetl Max Margolis,1974 A Shtetl Childhood Bertha Berezowski,1978 Childhood and Migration

Jacqueline Knörr,2015-09-15 This volume puts an emphasis on the question how children themselves experience and manage migration and by means of which they construct an identity for themselves which takes into account their experiences from both their places of origin and their host societies What role does the cultural background of the society of origin on the one hand and the strategies of integration found in the host society on the other play in the creation of identity and of a concept of home origin and belonging How do children express processes of cultural orientation and integration music media fashion style and what role do peer groups and social milieus play in this regard How do migrant children experience xenophobia and a lack of acceptance on the side of the host society and how do they counter balance such experiences The approach taken is both comparative and interdisciplinary the contributors having different theoretical and methodological backgrounds the contributions dealing with different social and cultural settings both with regard to place of origin and host society

Howard Zinn Martin Duberman,2012-10-02 Howard Zinn was perhaps the best known and most widely celebrated popular interpreter of American history in the twentieth century renowned as a bestselling author a political activist a lecturer and one of America s most recognizable and admired progressive voices His rich complicated and fascinating life placed Zinn at the heart of the signal events of modern American history from the battlefields of World War II to the McCarthy era the civil rights and the antiwar movements and beyond A bombardier who later renounced war a son of working class parents who earned a doctorate at Columbia a white professor who taught at the historically black Spelman College in Atlanta a committed scholar who will be forever remembered as a devoted people s historian Howard Zinn blazed a bold iconoclastic path through the turbulent second half of the twentieth century For the millions who were moved by Zinn s personal example of political engagement and by his inspiring bottom up history here is an authoritative biography of this towering figure by Martin Duberman recipient of the American Historical Association s 2007 Lifetime Achievement Award Given exclusive access to the previously closed Zinn archives Duberman s impeccably researched biography is illustrated with never before published photos from the Zinn family collection Howard Zinn A Life on the Left is a major publishing event that brings to life one of the most inspiring figures of our time Childhood in Contemporary Cultures Margaret

Mead,Martha Wolfenstein,1963 Fourteen essays illustrate a number of ways in which children can be studied and show how materials made by for or about children can be analyzed for the better understanding of child rearing Childhood in Contemporary Cultures ,1966 Daughters of the Shtetl Susan Anita Glenn,1990 Examines the role of Jewish women immigrants in the garment industry in early twentieth century America
